Minutes of last meeting read: Minutes read with corrections to date and approved

Treasurer's report: No Treasurer's report.

Old business: The Kuay printing and mailing costs $5500 for 11,000 copies mailed. They have all been mailed on the 5th of March.

Spring Luncheon is May 14, 2011, There have so far been 14 reservations made and a reminder, start thinking now of what type of raffle baskets you will bring for the luncheon. There will be a donation jar to help with the costs for the luncheon. We have a Queen Anne clock to raffle during the luncheon. The following have volunteered to help with the luncheon: Joe Samione and Jeri Samuelsen will do the merchandise, Kathy Gaylord, Anne Jordens, Sherry Moody and Claudia Lovegren will do the raffle sales, Sandy and Phil Krutsinger will do the drink tickets (Script) John Hennes and Martha will do the sign in table and of course Jackie Zobrist will be The Queen Anne Greeter and in charge of the Display Board. LD Zobrist will do the name tags and rosters. We plan to meet at 9:00-9:45 am for set up of the luncheon at the Seattle Yacht club. The theme is Butterflies and Spring.

This year's picnic is the 35th year of the QA Alumni Association. It will be at John Hay School for a second time. The picnic is scheduled for August 14, 2011.

Glo Holcomb is contacting Abbey rents and Jackie Zobrist is contacting the school district for John Hay School usage. Thank you, Sherry Moody for looking into the use of the Nile country club. Joe Samione will bring the Hamburgers; it was recommended that donation jars be used to help offset the picnic costs.

New business: It was suggested we have stocking hats with QA grizzly emblem to sell as new merchandise. Board approved.

Sherry Moody is creating a face book page for Q.A. Alumni Assoc. to announce events etc.

Good of the order: Letters received from June Sekiquchi Smith, class of 1938, Joyce Olson Wycoff class 1941 and Steve Reed McDougall class of 64 retired.
