Luncheon Activities:

Queen For A Day Claudia (Kettles) Lovgren '65 emcee Glo (Gleason) Holcomb '46. Kim Turner '61 and John Hennes '51 took turns telling Glo's story. Graduation QA in 1946 she married Clyde Holcomb '45 in 1950 and spent many years on QA raising her large family, while being involved with QA schools and helped start the QA Historical Society. After her husband death in 1985 she became active in the alumni, joining the board in 1987 and serving as co-president in 1988-89.

After 30 years with the Alumni Association she has, worked on almost every committee along with designing the last Centennial T Shirt which she was given one. She has written our luncheon programs, designed our table decorations, designed and sold merchandise plus providing the coffee at the Annual Picnic. Work on the KUAY editorial board, writing stories plus many others.

Glo will be missed not only for her lively presence, her helpful suggestions, her willingness to take on tasks and perform them so well and, of course her balloons.
