Former QA Teacher Establishes Heffelfinger Scholarship

By John Hennes '51

In the fall of 1946 a seasoned history teacher, Charles Heffelfinger, returned from four years WWII service in the Navy to resume his teaching career at Queen Anne.

That same year a fresh-faced young graduate of the University of Washington, Jay Taylor, arrived at Queen Anne to teach industrial arts. The two became good friends and this year, some 57 years later, Jay Taylor and his wife Maurine have established the C.H. Heffelfinger Scholarship with a $2,000 donation to the Queen Anne Scholarship Fund.

Charles H. Heffelfinger grew up in Iowa, attended the University of Des Moines in Iowa and taught school in Iowa and Idaho before completing his BA degree from Whitworth University in Spokane in 1932. He earned his MA from the University of Washington in 1934, was superintendent of schools in Roosevelt, Klickitat County and taught in Cashmere before arriving at Queen Anne in the fall of 1936. In 1941 he authored a textbook, "The Evergreen Citizen, a Textbook on the Government of the State of Washington," that was used throughout the state. Heffelfinger left Queen Anne in 1942 for Navy service, first as an instructor at Moffett Field, CA. and later in Honolulu. He remained a commander in the Naval Reserve on his return to civilian life. He was named head of the Social Studies Department at Queen Anne and served there another 14 years until his death from a heart attack at his home in Magnolia May 6, 1960.

Jay Taylor also came from the Midwest, where he attended the State Teachers College in Harney, NE.

One of his professors suggested he move to Seattle for the climate. He did so, and completed his BA at the UW where he met his wife Maurine. She became a teacher at Shorewood.

Taylor spent his entire 27-year teaching career at Queen Anne, leaving in 1973. After two years in the central administration office he retired in 1975.

The Taylors have asked that their gift to the Alumni Association be used to establish the C.H. Heffelfinger Scholarship. At Queen Anne, Heffelfinger was a demanding and inspiring teacher of history, especially U.S. History.

His students, whom he called his "scouts", were frequent entrants in the Hearst History Contest,

From Our QAHSAA President

By Barb (Wilson) Nelson '58

Greetings to you all! I wish you Good Health and Happiness in 2004! Another year has come and gone. A very high point for me was attending my 45th Class Reunion. It was so good to see all of you! How did all those years go by and yet when we get together again it seems like just a short time ago that we were graduating and either looking forward to or scared to death to be leaving the hallowed halls of Queen Anne High School, "to face the real world/get a taste of real life"?

After a variety of thoughts I finally concluded that along with getting older, we simply got BETTER, and perhaps wiser. Better about caring about each other, better about sharing ourselves and our lives with each other, and wise enough to realize the importance of our roots and our childhood friendships. Now, if we could get our classmate Gretchen to share some of her pep and energy with us, how much younger could/would we all feel again?...

Young again, Nah, let's just keep on through the years sharing life's adventures with each other! I'm looking forward to seeing my classmates and all you fellow alumni at the Association's upcoming events.

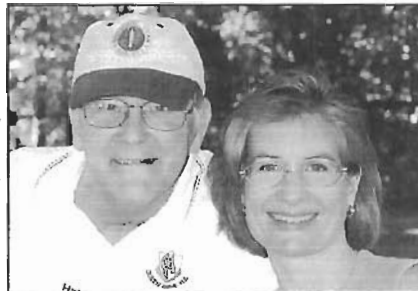

In Grizzly Fellowship, Barb

THANK YOU HAL!!

Long-time KUAY editor Hal Will '44 turns over the editorial responsibilities to Whitney Mason '80. Hal continues to direct, write for and serve as an indispensable member of the editorial board for the KUAY from the comfort of his Ballard home where he and wife Shirley continue to host and entertain QAHSAA and KUAY meetings and parties. Hal is still the point of contact for QA memorials and donations. He is currently writing his autobiography and other stories related to historic Magnolia.

Hal and Whitney first met while working together on the "Magnolia Memories & Milestones" book in 2000. Whitney is currently stationed back in Seattle as part of her duties in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve as the Seattle hometown link for the new Marine For Life program, a transition assistance program for Marines returning to civilian life. Whitney is a volunteer with the Seattle Animal Shelter, Girl Scouts Totem Council, MEOW Animal Rescue, and is a member of Seattle Rotary and Women In Communications.

WHO'S NEWS By John Hennes '51 and Kim Turner '61

We need your input to create this column. Send news of Grizzlies to: KUAY Editor, QA Alumni Assoc., PO Box 9128, Seattle, WA 98109. E-mail: jhennes1@mindspring.com or kturner@spl.org.

1910s-1920s

Alice (Whalley) Holcomb '21

Alice (Whalley) Holcomb '21 will celebrate her 100th birthday this April.

1930s

Betty (Bradshaw) Nemours '30 appears in a March 1930 full-page article on Queen Anne H.S. Thanks go to her daughter, Carol (Dent) Poppe '56, of Burlington, WA., who sent us the article.

Philip Spaulding '31 is celebrated in an article in the QA News for Oct.15, 2003, pp.18-19.

Boyd Smith '32 who died last September, was the subject of an article in the P-I, Sept. 22, 2003, p.B2.

Marylou (Klinker) Bernhardt '34 writes from her retirement home in Carmel, CA. and sends memories of her QAHS days: "I loved my time in Queen Anne - vice-pres. of the Girls' Club, lead in the School Senior Play, and lots of journalism duties." She includes memories of paying 10 cents to see the serials at the Cheerio Theatre on top of the Hill, and watching the boys pull the trolleys off the wires and the poor motorman scramble out to put them back on.

John "Jack" Steiner '36, who died last July, was featured in a two-column write-up in The Seattle Times, Aug.1, 2003, p.B4.

"Where are the stories?" complains Irving D. Smith '38. He wants more alums to speak up at the luncheons and banquets and tell their stories. For instance, the time 40 or 50 dogs were gathered from the neighborhood and let loose in the main hall during lunch time. Or what about the great operettas and those who participated, necking on Magnolia Boulevard, or using the air circulating system for unusual purposes. Time to 'fess up!

1940s

Last year we reported on a search by a young woman, Kimberly Ann Arthur, for information about Joe Noyes '40, who flew B-17s during WWII. Joe died in a bombing raid over Paris in 1943. Several people have contacted Kimberly and the results of her research can be found at: www.kimberlyarthur.net/joe/index.html.

A letter from Carole (Kemp) Ralston '41 gives kudos to the KUAY staff. "I really enjoy receiving the KUAY paper. Brings back lots of happy memories. Your officers and board members are to be commended for all their work in keeping the organization going thru all these years." She enclosed a donation "in Memory of my wonderful home economics teacher, Miss Jessie Butler."

Gordon Crandall '42 writes that he has retired as an assistant attorney for the city of Seattle and currently works as a land use hearing examiner for various cities and other agencies. His wife Gail is a West Seattle grad. They have three children and three grandchildren.

Former Lawton Wood brat, Don R. Clark, '43, now lives in Ocean Shores, WA., but he grew up in the Lawton Wood section of Magnolia. The book he published last year, "What Depression? How America's Kids Beat the Blahs of the 1930s", tells stories of life in Seattle in those years. It is now available at Magnolia's Bookstore and at Queen Anne Avenue Books, or by emailing him at: donrclark@coastaccess.com

Milly (Warner) Finney '44 writes from Coeur d'Alene, Idaho: "I'm looking forward to our ('44) 60th class reunion." Encloses a photo of Mr. Shelton and the photography class from the early 1940s.

Bettie (Johnson) Wilmoth '44 sends a recent photo and a lovely letter regarding the winter commute from Magnolia to Queen Anne and taking the trolley up the hill or hiking in the snow. She is currently involved in hand painting porcelain tea sets, and is a charter member of the Fresno Porcelain Artists and the California Federation of Porcelain Artists. She corresponds with class members Jean Moreman and Juanita (Johnson) Nordin.

Don Regalia '45 and wife, Shirley write from Apache Junction, AZ., where they reside from October to April 15th - "Have a wonderful Christmas and 2004." Spring will find them returning to their home in Mount Vernon, WA.

Georgia (Baldwin) Gordon '46 also sends thanks for the Kuay - she mentions that lacking in Hal's article about the counterbalance was the fact that it was closed every time it snowed and the trolleys had to go up Taylor Avenue to get to the top of the hill.

Jim Baird '47 updates our database regarding Gold Star Grizzlies who have not previously been listed: Griffith King, '44, was killed in action on Okinawa in July, 1945. Jim adds, "thanks for all of your work; it is much appreciated by so many people."

Robert Shyvers '47, was honored at a dedication ceremony in Bellingham last July for his "compassionate and humanitarian aid to the children of the Korean War, 1950-1953." He is currently living back in the house on Queen Anne Hill where he was born.

Still excelling in sports is Glenn Werner '49, who won two gold medals in table tennis in last year's Washington State Senior Games. Glenn learned to play, as did many Queen Anne kids, at the YMCA on Queen Anne Avenue.

Tom Rasmussen '53 sends kudos to Hal Will '44 for being a terrific editor for the KUAY newsletter.

1950s

Sue (Snyder) Streeper '55 writes: The days of the fire were really depressing and scary, but we were not directly threatened. I had packed up a few things, but we never needed to evacuate...my husband and I are fine, but San Diego County is reeling.

1960s

Cathey (McPhaden) Philbrick '65 was a Fulbright Memorial Fund Teacher Program participant for three weeks in Japan during June and July 2003. She was one of only 200 teachers nationwide to participate out of more than 2,500 applicants. She teaches art and is teacher leader for McNary High School in Keizer, OR., and is also an adjunct faculty member for Willamette University.

Joe Mercurief '65 writes: "First of all, many thanks for continuing to send me the news letter. I was only at QA for four years and prior to that was one year in Mark Holcomb '74 writes from his new home at Lake Elsinore, some 60 miles north of San Diego, CA.: "I have moved to sunny Calif. where I will no longer rust, I will tan! He drives trucks for Lowe's, is still married and has four children, and looks forward to the class reunion in 2004.

Julie Rafferty '76, who lives in Fairbanks, AK, and was a Cantorian at QAHS, has never been uninvolved in the music world. As a result, her debut CD, "No Finer Place," has been released. It is, in her words, "done in an easy jazz style and features longtime NW jazz pianist, Barney McClure.

John A. Eisenhower '77 sent a great biographical sketch of his work in creating and developing the firm, Mercury Online Solutions, Inc. His firm has been listed among the top 50 fastest-growing privately-owned business in the U.S. in the five years ending in 2003, according to Inc.500, annual compilation from Inc. magazine. ### Class of '53 Has Blowout at the Nile

By Tom Rasmussen '53

On Sept. 20 and 21, 2003, the Class of 1953 celebrated our 50th class reunion. Since we all wanted to return to those thrilling days of yesteryear, the Nile Country Club was selected as the site for the reunion gala, the same venue as our senior prom.

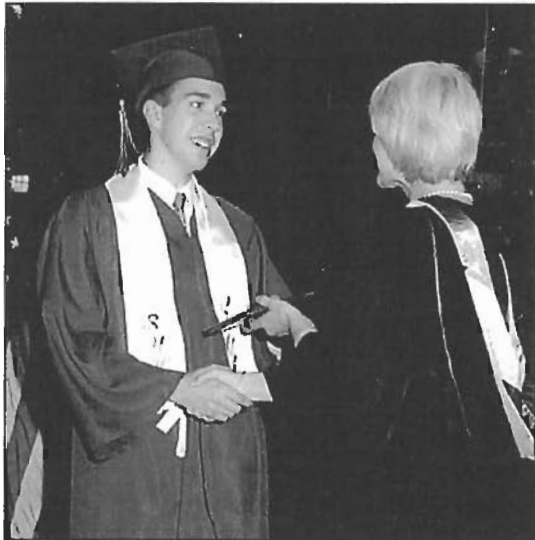

Preparation began long before the events, and the reunion co-chairs Sigrid (Sally Wood) Knight and Doug Ruud provided terrific leadership. There was a lot of hard work, but also many good times along the way. A significant effort was made to locate as many alumni as possible.

A total of 137 attended the festive banquet, with 80 being QA grads. Gorgeous decorations, many nostalgic photos and even some old trophies on loan from the Seattle Public School Archives provided a tremendous atmosphere. The banquet also featured a program complete with a skit reminiscent of the KUAY Kapers. And, yes, the singing of our old school songs proved again that the famous Grizzly spirit is still alive and well.

On Sunday we enjoyed a great picnic and tour of the new John Hay school playground, hosted by our generous classmate, Bob Ferguson.

Thanks are certainly due to '53 Reunion guests from l to r: the QAHSAA and to Dianne Sigrid (Sally Wood) Knight, Betty Greene with Distinctive Weddings & Events for their invaluable assistance and support. A beautiful memory book has been published to chronicle this outstanding reunion. We are looking forward to having other reunions in the future, so please forward all vital statistics and address changes to the QAHSAA. Thanks again to all who made our reunion such a class event.

 Seattle WA, 98115-2436

The alumni scholarship program has been the primary public expression of our Association's legacy since its founding in 1981. The scholarship funds come from the donations of our Grizzly alumni, either individually or through their reunion committees. All donations are tax deductible. Donations for scholarships may be made for specific scholarships or for the growth of our Scholarship Endowment Fund, which helps provide for our perpetual Grizzly Scholarship Program.

QAHSAA Mission: "The purpose of this Association is to promote public education through the establishment of endowments; to continue the active role of Queen Anne High School in the community; to promote fellowship among alumni, teachers and friends of Queen Anne; and to honor and keep alive the name of Queen Anne High School."

GRIZZLY ANGELS

Each year the legacy of Queen Anne High School is expressed in part by the Alumni Scholarship Program. — an ongoing effort to provide scholarships to QAHS descendants today and a permanent fund for future scholarships. These contributions fuel the Queen Anne legacy. All gifts are appreciated.

QAHS War Casualties: Alumni Website Looking For Info & Photos

Seventy-six Queen Anne alumni who died in WWII and 15 who died in Viet Nam have been memorialized on the QAHSAA website. Probably many more died in WWII but we need help in completing the memorial. Working from a list of 2,403 QA servicepersons compiled before the end of the war, we have been able to find in old yearbooks 55 of the 76 Grizzlies on the Gold Star list. We were unable to find 21 of those who had died in the war by the time the list was compiled. In addition, there were at the time eight listed as missing in action and 11 who were thought to be POWs. We hope that we may get more information from alumni so that all of those who died in WWII will be memorialized.

Fifteen QAHS alumni who died in Viet Nam are also memorialized, and all but two of them are pictured. We have been informed of a 16th, Wayne Petersen '61, and seek more information about him.

The 21 WWII Gold Star alumni who we can't find in yearbooks nor our alumni database are: Leo Bateman, Bruce Brown, James Cleary, William Dikeman, John Gorman, Laverne Hanson, Robert Holland, Ed Howe, Fay Johnson, Willie McLaughlin, Dervyn Muth, Frank Olmsted, Thomas O'Meara, Ray Partee, Fred Picinich, Hoyt Ross, Stanley Taylor, Paul Wendelin, Robert White, Howard Wilson, and Richard Yarrow.

We are looking for their class years and to copy any photos of them. If you have information and/or photos, e-mail Sandy Murray '55 at: info@qagrizzlies.org.

Jerry Munro – Still Green After All These Years

By John Hennes '51

Garden design has been Gerald (Jerry) Munro's ('35) life-long passion. His shop, Munro's Nursery in Kenmore, is still an active center of Northwest garden and pond designs. The July/August 2003 edition of "Garden Design" magazine featured Jerry's work in an article on a huge garden in a private home near his nursery. The garden included waterfalls, a brook and a koi pond, all designed by Jerry.

He started out selling cut flowers for $2-$5 a day at a nursery in Rose Hill (Redmond). A degree in plant genetics at Washington State College led him to a full-time career in landscaping. Among his projects was the Century 21 World's Fair landscaping along Mercer Street.

Back in high school at Queen Anne, he was a halfback on the football team in the days of leather helmets and a cloud of dust at Civic Stadium. He also remembers setting off a chemical explosion in MOQA's Christmas luncheon in December 2003.

Baker's chemistry class. W.O. Baker was a WWI vet and the explosion produced a highly agitated reaction in him. Jerry's favorite teacher was Miss Nada Overland, who taught English and Literature at Queen Anne from 1927-47. Munro would engage her in chess matches.

Jerry graduated from Warren Avenue school before attending QAHS. As a boy he remembers taking streetcars to Green Lake on snowy days and hitching sled rides on the back end of cars. Today, he notes, there is less snow and his nursery increasingly carries California warm-weather plants.
