QAHSAA Awards 40 Scholarships for the 1st Time

By Kerry McMahan '54

Our 28th annual scholarship competition resulted in 40 scholarship awards. This is the first year 40 awards have been made possible by the exceptional generosity of classes, reunion groups, individual donations and the collective donations of many Queen Anne alumni.

This year, 101 application forms were requested, with 90 applications received by the March 31 deadline. This year, 24 scholarships were awarded to high school seniors, 15 to college students and 1 to a master's degree candidate.

Those interested in competing for a 2011 award should request an application by writing to the Education Committee at 3025 NE 95th Street, Seattle WA 98115-2436 after January 1, 2011, and arrange with their school registrar for official transcripts that will include their first semester high school senior grades and/or university grades.

The 2010 QAHSAA scholarship winners are featured on pages 8-11.

QA Summer Picnic Sunday, Aug. 15

By Sandy (Johnson) Krutsinger '65

The 17th annual Alumni Association picnic will be held at Gas Works Park this year from 11:30 a.m. to approximately 4 p.m. This is a great location since there is plenty of space and cover in case we have rain! The picnic can continue in any weather so plan to come even if it is rainy that day.

The Association will be providing hot dogs, soda pop and coffee. In past years, Tully's has provided the coffee and we have greatly appreciated their generosity. Our Korean and Vietnam Veterans are in possession of the original grill from Al's Hamburger Place on the Ave. and will be cooking hamburgers on that grill again this year, as they have in years past. The best burgers!! The alumni will bring side dishes to share, as well. If you like, bring a side dish or dessert along and a fellow classmate!

The classes of '40, '45, and '65 are hosting mini-reunions at the picnic. We had a large turnout last year and hoping for an even better one this year. We hope you will come join us and have some fun! The Gas Works Park is at the north end of Lake Union, parking is available.

For driving directions, visit: www.qagrizzlies.org.

40 Scholarship Recipients Named

~ Pages 8-11

From Our QAHSAA President

What a year this has been, celebrating the centennials of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition and our beloved high school, both occurring in 1909; thus 2009 was spent in bringing out a sense of what achievements and connections our students had to the Expo and what the first graduating class did after graduation. Fifty-five alums, 33 women and 22 men, each of whom had a story to tell, and some whose stories have been lost down the long years.

I continue to work on their individual histories, even with limited research results. Most married; some did not. Most of the married couples had children; again, some did not. There were few divorces. The last ones living managed to outlive their high school as a school. Several made it into the late 1980's. Some were achievers of note, others were ordinary citizens. More than a score moved elsewhere at some point during their lives, although the majority remained in the Washington-Oregon area.

What began as an attempt to find out what each of those first graduates did, and who they really were, has begun to be something much bigger. I think the remainder of my research will lead to a small publication about this group.

In the meantime, the next project is to assemble a small file of the football champions for the Fall Luncheon. So here's your assignment, as alums—which of the following titles was the best: 1912, 1930, 1942, 1945, 1948 (tie), 1953, 1965, 1973 or 1980? Those were city titles; we also held South Division titles in 1969, 1971, 1972, and Division III title in 1974. Some of our greatest games did not occur in championship seasons; for example, the 1961 rout of Rainier Beach. Hope to see you all at Magnolia Days and the summer picnic in August!

WHO'S NEWS

Compiled by Kim R. Turner '61

We need your input to create this column. Send news of Grizzlies to: Who's News Editor, QA Alumni Assoc., P.O. Box 9128, Seattle, WA 98109, or e-mail: whosnews@qagrizzlies.org Photos are always wanted.

1930s:

John '34 and Millie (Iverson) Penso '39, celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary in Las Vegas, March 27, 2010. Daughters Pam (Penso) Lehman '61, and Jill (Penso) Grant '66, along with spouses, grandsons and spouses, and four great-grandchildren were there to help celebrate. Pauline (Theda) Davison '36, thanks us for the KUAY and tells us of her travels after her husband's death: she has been to all seven continents and stood on the shores of Antarctica in 2008. Way to go, Pauline!

Clamara (Skaw) Hobson '36, is now living at the Kline Galland Home. Her brother Floyd Skaw '39 is now living in an adult family home in Shoreline following a foot injury.

Dick Smith '48, who now lives in Yakima, sent in a recap of the "almost" city baseball champions of 1948, whose mainstay, Gene Grant '48, is no longer with us.

Joe Ferluga '49 has supplied us with an update on his granddaughter, 1999 scholarship winner Dr. Elizabeth Ferluga, M.D., who is in her third year residency at Vanderbilt Medical Center in Nashville, TN. She has been selected by the medical staff as Chief Resident Neurology (adult pediatric). She has been granted a fellowship for a fifth year of residency.

Robert Johnston '49, who performed at the spring luncheon, has been choir director of several local churches and currently directs the Norwegian Male Chorus.

1950s:

Roy C. De Selms '50-'51 sent us a great (nearly three-page) autobiography. He is now a 50-year emeritus member of the American Chemical Society, a status achieved two years ago. Among other achievements was working with Nobel Laureate Prof. Glen Seaborg at the Lawrence Radiation Laboratory in Berkeley, CA. 27 years were spent at Eastman Kodak, and Roy has some great stories.

Delwyn and Donna (McNeese) Ensey (both '52) just celebrated their 56th anniversary. Del's brother, Morie Ensey '50, sang in the operettas "The Desert Song" and "The Prince of Pilsen." He had lead roles in both productions. Thanks, Del.

Carrol (Sutton) Read '54, who danced the hula at our luncheon, started teaching Hawaiian dancing at the age of ten. She saved her own money for a trip to Hawaii at age 14, where she studied with Iolani Luahine, the last of the Royal Temple dancers. Naturally, her Kapers act in 1953 was "Hawaiian War Chant."

Sally (Marshall) Jacobsen '58, another luncheon performer, had booked a trip to her husband's family home in Iceland a week before the luncheon. It had to be cancelled due to the massive eruption of the volcano-nobody-can-pronounce.

Dr. Margaret C. Telfer '56 missed her 50th class reunion but still has memories of her years at Queen Anne, including the QA Fight Song, which the great John Phillip Sousa thought the best school song ever written when he heard it at Wisconsin. Margaret sends best wishes to Sylvia (Campbell) Matthews '56 and their teacher Sylvia (Weinstein) Paul "who made my high school career a joy."

JoAnne Lavina (Reise) Lamb '56 was the victim of a tragic fire last January at her home in Edmonds. Her daughter, Paula J. Cuneo, informs us that a "JoAnne L. Lamb Foundation" has been started to create a perpetual scholarship fund to allow lower income students in Edmonds the opportunity to excel with an education in a creative or fire-safety related field. Dolores Vinikow '55 needed to get in touch with board member Carolyn (Cross) Avery '57. Fortunately we were able to comply. Dolores remembers being French horn player in the QA orchestra under Ed Ottum's tutelage.

Dee McQuesten '59 has opened a fine arts gallery in Madison Park, "McQuesten Framing and Fine Art Services, LLC".

Carl Grant (Carl Lehrhoff) '59, another luncheon performer, uses his degrees in English and philosophy to entertain and motivate corporate audiences as well as to do standup comedy appearances on "Late Night with David Letterman", Showtime and National Public Radio.

1960s:

Barbara J. (Barb) (Yantis) Meisner '60 lives in Colorado and would love to hear from classmates. She is in our website class directory.

Charles Pike '63, who gave fine renditions of Elvis Presley hits from the 1960s at our luncheon, was an Air Force medical corpsman in Vietnam, earning several citations, including the Vietnamese Cross of Valor and the Bronze Star. He continued his medical career as a registered nurse in civilian life, which included private nursing gigs with the Beach Boys, Whitney Houston and Sammy Davis Jr.

Gary (Duke) Williams '64 sends a very fine mini-bio containing memories of his first car, a 1963 Corvette, which he bought with money he earned as a paper boy. He received his MBA from UCLA and has established the Williams Family Endowed Fellowship at UCLA Anderson (School of Management). He has sent a very nice gift for our scholarships. But one thing, Duke – what happened to the Corvette?

Rev. Ann N. Morgan '66 shares memories of her years at Queen Anne, remembering Eugene Brown's Glee Club (7:40 a.m.) and wonders where her former teachers Mr. Hollingsworth and Mr. Robert MacCay are today (Ed. Note: Raft Hollingsworth is deceased, MacCay's whereabouts are unknown). She will be receiving copies of the KUAY. She lives in Merrick, New York.

Timothy L. Austin '68 reminded me that I totally forgot one of the most significant guests at the Veterans' Day Medal of Honor Ceremony at UW last Nov. 11, 2009 – the keynote speaker for the event was none other than our grad, General Peter W. Chiarelli '68, the 32nd Vice Chief of Staff of the U.S. Army. He gave a very moving tribute to all the Armed Forces who served their country so willingly and many of whom did not return from the battles.

The 1969 City Championship Queen Anne baseball team that took part in the spring luncheon included Greg Gardner (representing the late Mike Arch), Greg and Marc Pease, Craig Smith, Scott Stevens and John Varga. They were joined by Steve Waite, son of baseball coach Mel Waite, who escorted his mother, Lois Waite, to the luncheon. Steve played with the others in Little League and later on the Ingraham team defeated by Queen Anne for the title.

Jo (Jolly) Bach '70 has joined our ever-increasing on-line directory. She lives with her family in Bellevue, but finds time to return to the hilltop where her mom, Katie Jolly, longtime resident, still lives in the family home just a few blocks north of the high school. (Katie has been one of my colleagues at the Downtown library, but is retired). Marcia (Ritchey) Meyer-ing '70 has given us the 1930 football city championship game ball which her late dad, Clayton Ritchey '31 had been given. It has the score of the game (Queen Anne 7, Lincoln 6) and the names of the players who participated. We thank you, Marcia, for an invaluable gift. The football, slightly deflated, was on display at the spring luncheon.

Eric King '76 lives in Neenah, Wisconsin, where he makes pottery and restores Italian motorcycles. Ducati, anyone?

Kathi Goertzen '76 has been on special assignment for KOMO-TV since completing her last treatments for her persistent brain tumor. It's nice to see her back on the air.

FACULTY:

Helen Hill, who taught Spanish to a large group of Queen Anne students from 1955-1962 before moving on to Roosevelt, was unable to attend the Spring Luncheon, as she was celebrating her 90th birthday with her family at her home in California. All three of her sons, although not Queen Anne High students, did graduate from Seattle Pacific University. Our hearty congratulations!

Dr. Diane Hansen, who taught at Queen Anne for a short term, sent another very nice thank you for our invitation to the spring luncheon – she has many fond memories of Queen Anne and humorous tales of her colleagues as well as her students. She went on from our hallowed halls to teach at Chief Sealth and Roosevelt high schools, the latter from which she eventually retired.

Coach Walt Milroy turned 90 in February, with many Grizzlies from his Queen Anne years in the 1950s and '60s joining him in a celebration at Arnie's in Edmonds on Feb. 16, 2010.

The Queen Anne Calendar girls has had a good run, lasting six years. This year, the calendar girls plan to take a break. There is the strong possibility, however, that after a year of rest they may return to sell calendars for QA scholarships. For now, you'll have to keep track of events, anniversaries, dinner dates, birthdays, dentist appointments, ball games, reunions, and whatever else you post, on other calendars.

For those of you who supported this scholarship over the years, the Calendar Girl staff thanks you. Two graduates from the Class of 1954, Linda (Fouts) McCullough and Patricia (Purcell) Turnbull, deserve to be singled out as the ladies who put it all together. Their hard work is very much appreciated.

Queen Anne Class of '49---60th Reunion

The Class of '49's 60th last August included (from l to r): Diane (Jorgenson) Estep, Bob Houbregs and Coach Walt Milroy.

The class of '49 held a gala 60-year reunion Aug. 22 & 23 of last year. On Friday eve, the "Ice Breaker" was held at the home of LaRae (Roth) Hanson Stinemetz. The weather was just right and terrific refreshments were served including Burritos on a Board, salad, drinks and mini cream puffs. There was plenty of time to visit and hash over old and new events.

The next evening, a social gathering was held at the Seattle Yacht Club followed by a sit-down dinner. Our deceased classmates, since the past five years, were acknowledged. Following dinner, our reunion chairman, Bob Johnston, led us all in a Yell (G-R-I-Z-Z-L-Y) and the Queen Anne Fight Song. In closing the festivities, Bob sang a beautiful rendition of the title song of "The Sound of Music". Blessings to you all. Keep well and safe, until we meet again.

Spring Luncheon Recap: KUAY KAPERS Tribute

By Kim Turner '61

Grizzly alums and former faculty members enjoyed a six-act tribute to KUAY KAPERS during the Alumni Spring Luncheon at the Seattle Yacht Club May 22. The program opened with emcee Kim Turner '61 addressing the crowd and invoking a minute of silence in honor of those who have preceded us in death, followed by the singing of "America the Beautiful". Then began the first of the six acts: dressed in 1900 styles, Turner sang "Strolling Through the Park" while Sally (Marshall) Jacobson '59 echoed with "Tiptoe Through the Tulips." They closed with a duet of the 1950s hit, "Moments To Remember".

The second act was Carrol (Sutton) Read '54, performing a beautiful interpretive hula to the 1934 song "Do the Hula". She was followed by members of the 1969 Queen Anne City Championship baseball team. Not present was their catcher, Mike Arch, who died in April, and three other team members who graduated later on. They sang

"Take Me Out To the Ball Game" with new lyrics written by Turner and luncheon chair Glo Holcomb '46. Greg Gardner '69 gave heartfelt testimony to the joy and fellowship the players felt having played together since their Little League days. The team left the stage singing "We Are the Champions" and the first half of the program ended.

Open mics went through the audience to gather stories and reminiscences of the school and Kapers. When asked why he chose to become a teacher, John Doty replied, "I got on the wrong bus." The second half of the program opened with "Elvis Lives" a tribute to The King by Charles Pike '63, who came up from Colorado. Carl Grant (Lehrhoff) '59, professional speaker and stand-up comic, gave some hilarious lines about high school and politics. The closer, Bob Johnston '49, came out as Tevye from "Fiddler On the Roof" singing "Sunrise, Sunset," and "If I Were a Rich Man," to great applause.

The audience was invited to "go backstage" to join the cast party, during the raffle and the serving of dessert which included a rather large cookie in the form of a grizzly bear. The afternoon closed with a Grizzly version of "Those Were the Days", the Grizzly Fight Song and the Alma Mater. It was another wonderful afternoon in the lives of QA alums and teachers.

Bob Johnston '49 as Tevye.
