LET'S PICNIC

By Claudia (Kettles) Lovgren '65

Dust off your Grizzly furs from your winter hibernation to come out and paw through the slaw (and other side dishes) with your fellow QAHS alums. Of course there will be burgers and dogs off of Al's Grill. We always enjoy our outdoor dining, getting caught up with those in our class and meeting new Grizzlies of all ages. Feel free to bring a side dish and most of all YOU. The vistas of Lake Union are wonderful. Hope you can join us for our annual QA Alumni All-Years Summer Celebration at Gas Works Park on Sunday, August 23rd from 11:30 am - 4 pm.

The Gas Works Park is at the north end of Lake Union (Meridian Ave. N. and N. Northlake Way). Parking is available. Your donations (suggested $5) help cover the costs of park fees and food.

President's Message

By Sherry (Peck) Moody '66

Greetings and Salutations to All!

Our Spring Luncheon was held on April 25th, at the Seattle Yacht Club, and a fine time was had by all. If you missed it, then please come to our Fall Luncheon on the 24th of October. Many thanks to Kerry McMahan's ('54) sponsorship and to Jeri Samuelsen '63 and her committee for a very enjoyable gathering of bears!

Our annual all-class summer picnic will be here in no time—Sunday, August 23, at Gas Works Park. Feel free to bring a side dish or a dessert to accompany the burgers and dogs, and a good time will be had by all! Remember your sunscreen and sunglasses.

You will see an article in this KUAY about the retirement/closing of LeRoux Fine Apparel for Men and Women, run by longtime supporters and '67 graduates, Mike and Alex (Dalinkus) Smith. Consequently, we would like to find someone who has a retail store, in Magnolia and/or Queen Anne who would offer us space to sell QA memorabilia. If you, or someone you know, has this type of store, please give me their name, phone number and email address, and I will contact them.

As I have said several times, our largest endeavor is funding our scholarship program. Kerry McMahan has chaired the committee since its inception, and you can see the recipients for 2015 in this issue. Your donations are most welcome to keep this program funded for Grizzly heirs, as well as for supporting our KUAY newsletter, plus our picnic and lunches.

Our dwindling numbers come as no surprise to us. We are a shrinking association, as our last graduation class was 1981. That said, we are seeing smaller attendance at our lunches. There has been discussion about cancelling the Fall Luncheon and moving the Annual Business Meeting to the Spring Luncheon. We would like to hear from you. We want your thoughts on this. Call us. Email us. Contact us!

Craig Smith '69 has been a board member for the past two years. He has made the decision to resign due to work, family and other issues. Thanks, Craig, for being a part of the board, and we hope to see you at the picnic!

Don't forget to check our website www.qagrizzlies.org for periodic updates. Thanks, everyone.

Hey all! Welcome to my third edition. Things are going along as usual for me. I'm just enjoying the heat that we've been having. Yes, I actually enjoy it! I just got back from a trip to Vegas and compared to the heat there, this is great. Other than that, I'm still running, working, and having fun. Hope you enjoy this issue and the rest of summer!

WHO'S NEWS

Compiled By Kim R. Turner '61

Marvin and Shirle Hartley

First, two losses. Marv and Shirle Hartley died within a month of each other. They were married over 60 years, and although both had teaching degrees, Shirle had to postpone her career. Marv taught seven years (1958-64) at Queen Anne, and was often an endower to our alum events: keepsakes, memorabilia and memories. We will miss having them at our luncheons.

Marion (Edgerton) Parker '34

celebrated 97 years, much of it actively involved in the Queen Anne community, raising a family near where she herself grew up, and making an impact from her 24 years work at the Queen Anne Library where she was an honored guest at the library's 2014 centennial celebration. As an active member of the Queen Anne Historical Society, she was one of the fine writers whose research became the book, "Queen Anne, Community on the Hill." She has been a close friend during my tenure with the library system, and was one of the angels who keep our alumni association going. She also will be missed.

1940s: Riley T. Folsom '42 and Eudora L. (Isbell) Folsom '44 are living at the same street address in Stanwood, WA, in assisted living. They held their 71st wedding anniversary in April and consider themselves in reasonably good health for ages 88 and 90! They send thanks for all our hard work.

William F. Briggs '45 sent a photo of the 1941 John Hay baseball team, most of who graduated from Queen Anne High in 1945. Suzanne Helgerson sends us notice of Warren Helgerson '48. He was a member of the UW crew teams which won two national collegiate racing championships. He served as a Naval submarine officer in the Korean conflict and participated in the Inchon Invasion. He had a busy life, purchasing a 32-acre apple orchard in East Wenatchee and supplied top quality apples yearly. He died last February (2015). Annabelle (Gullikson) Wall '49 sent a note and article from Kennewick. She and husband Jerry have provided eight harps to Tri-Cities/ Yakima Valley schools over the years: harps! The recent result is that Kennewick High School grad Allison Bjorkedal won a Grammy playing the kithara, a harp-like instrument.

1950s: William A. "Bill" Reese III '50 sent us a large family genealogy segment. Evalie Joan (Thompson) Fox '51 died March 18th. She had an active life, working for the Los Angeles County Dept. of Social Services for seven years and later for the I.R.S. for 15 years. She was actively involved in singing in Santa Monica, CA.

1960s: We received copies of photos of the 1965 opening day for the yachting season with the "Official Press Barge/KUAY Weekly" with 1965 grads Captain S. A. "Steve" Eward, John Daughters, Scott "Ringo" Fleury, Jim Nelson '64 and Rick "Bosun" Dagg. Great pictures, but the donor forgot to tell us his or her name, and from where the photos came??? Also 1965: Mike

We need your input to create the Who's News column. Send news of Grizzlies to: Who's News Editor, QA Alumni Assoc., P.O.Box 9128, Seattle, WA 98109, or email : whosnews@qagrizzlies.org. Photos at 300 dpi or higher res. are welcome.

Fiorini retired in 2010 after 36 years in supply chain and procurement organizations. He and wife Pam will celebrate their 46th wedding anniversary in June. He sends thanks to the Alumni Association for all we do. Mike and Alex (Dalinkus) Smith '67 are retiring from LeRoux's in Magnolia the end of May. (see elsewhere in issue). Weltha Jane (Forsyth) Jensen '68 retired in Dec. 2014 as Associate Professor of Nursing at Salt Lake Community College. She and her sister, Marilyn (Forsyth) Wallin '62 who is also an RN, care for their 98-year-old father, who lives with Marilyn and her husband Bruce, in St. George, UT.

1970s: Louise E. (Ball) Stutes '70 sent a nice donation to the alums and a note: "I certainly enjoy receiving the KUAY! Thank you. I was elected to the Alaska House of Representatives in 2014 serving Kodiak, Cordova, Yakutat, Seldovia, Tyonek, Tatilik and Chenega."

Ruben Van Kempen '70

Ruben Van Kempen '70, noted Roosevelt High School Drama Instructor, is finally retiring after 34 years teaching. He has performed and directed in local theater for years. His students have gone onto theater and television all over the U.S. and abroad. Many articles about him appear online (just Google him)! Gordon C. "Gordy" Ferguson '75 sends word that he was involved in the recovery of a B-17 Flying Fortress from the depths of Dyke Lake, Labrador, ten years ago. Gordon currently lives in Federal Way with his family. Eric Berge '76 owns and operates Werner's Crash Shop on Taylor Avenue for the past 26 years. For 8 years they have sponsored the Magnolia Village Car Show the QA Grad Does Not Stay in Lovely Hotels!

By Claudia (Kettles) Lovgren '65

QA Grad of '63 Terry (Samuelson) Elizondo travels with her daughters Mary and Christina to developing countries, connecting with the local residents. The Spanish speaking attorney and advocate for Latin American citizens eschews chocolates on the pillow of hotels with indoor plumbing and lovely linens for the adventure of staying in places like a $5 hotel in Ubud, Bali, riding a broken down ferry to Lombok, then onto the Gili Islands and staying with families in homes on stilts.

Terry, who lives in Houston TX and is the twin sister of QA Alumni board member Jeri Samuelson '63, and Terry's daughter Christina took a $5 sleeper bus from Pune, Mexico, sleeping on plywood two feet from the ceiling. Sounds like they needed "bed belts" since they were bouncing and hitting the ceiling. There was a robbery (only the men were robbed) on another bus to Tlaquepaque but that did not stop them for more adventures: going to Goa and a Hindu temple in the jungles of the Monkey Forest; to Thailand (unknowingly in a red light district) and getting bit by jelly fish in Indonesia; and to Guatemala, Paraguay, Kenya, Argentina, China, India and Brazil.

They have climbed Mt. Kilimanjaro on a "budget" trek with six porters who cooked for them along with carrying their luggage. There are normally 14 porters per person on these treks. Terry felt they were all family and it was mutual by the time the trek was finished.

Terry's travels with her daughters have provided them with a compassionate connection with the people of poor countries, who may be sleeping in a tarp tent on the sidewalk and washing their clothes in a metal pot, along with a strengthened connection with her daughters.

Of course they also travel with their father, Terry's husband Candelario, to more comfortable destinations at "real" hotels.

Pete Barbas '54 and Pete's Poop Deck

By Kim R. Turner '61

This started with an email requesting I get in touch with Pete Barbas '54 and grew into a little extra research and phone calls with Pete, correspondence received and a little sleuthing online to get a better picture of the man and his former jazz venue. My classmates Julie (Breitstein) Miller and Kathy (McMahan) Sierer, both '61 interviewed Pete for the KUAY Weekly back in 1961 when his jazz nightclub, the Poop Deck, was already 4 years old.

The place was located at the foot of Main Street under the Alaskan Way viaduct. Peanut shells covered the floor. The clientele was diverse, and the jazz personalities and early hard rock mavens read like a Who's Who of Jazz: Cal Tjader, Shorty Rogers, Howard Rumsey and the Lighthouse All-Stars, Barney Kessell, the Chico Hamilton Quintet, Ahmad Jamal, Floyd Standifer, Chris Connor, the Ronnie Ball Trio, Horace Silver Quintet, Ernestine Anderson and Jimi Hendrix, the latter two early in their careers. There are a slew of articles online regarding Pete and cover both the Seattle Greek and Italian communities.

After Pete closed the Poop Deck, shortly after the end of the Century 21 World's Fair, he opened a neighborhood establishment on Beacon Hill and continued for several more years. He retired from show biz in 1969 and moved to Camano Island, where he lives part of the time. His cousin, John Dimitriou, created Dimitriou's Jazz Alley, which flourishes today.

Bob Houbregs Memorial Golf Tournament

To best appreciate the Bob Houbregs Memorial QA Golf Classic, you have to be there. EVERYONE IS WELCOME. Even if you don't play golf, you can just hang out in the afternoon on the patio and enjoy good conversation. An open bar is there for your enjoyment. The main attraction is Bob's tournament, which include both men and women. So set your calendar to either play, or to be at the Everett Golf and Country Club on Monday, September 14th. If you plan to play, registration starts at 10:00, which is followed by a box lunch before teeing off. The golfer's package cost is $160. This includes a tax donation to the Men & Women of Queen Anne (MWOQA) Scholarship Fund (501c), which benefits students playing college sports.

On behalf of the MWOQA Committee, the welcome mat is out for you to join fellow classmates either to play or just to join in the conversation. Coach Walt Milroy is the Grand Marshall. For more information, contact: Roger Jensen '61 (206-364 5478), Don Lorentz '60 (206-948 4197), Craig Smith '69 (206-707 4650), or Dee Hawkes '54 (425-485 5665).

Spring Fling at 18th Annual Spring Luncheon

By Kim R. Turner '61

A large group of contented alums enjoyed each other's company, the beautiful surroundings and the fine meals set out at the Seattle Yacht Club on Saturday, April 25, 2015. There was no highlighted program, giving attendees a better chance to catch up with one another's lives. Claudia (Kettles) Lovgren '65 was emcee. The oldest class represented was by Al Jones '38. The youngest by Connie Haas and Ed Bol, both '81.

Eight gift baskets were included in the popular raffle. The Sherry Moody/Claudia Lovgren basket was won by Joan Rauchlan '50. The Zobrist basket was won by Joanne (Drost) Ells '51. John Wedeberg's gift basket was won by Jo Wayt Johnson '64. Glo Holcomb's gift basket was won by Judy (Johnston) Crutcher '62.; A basket put together by Jeri Samuelsen and Kathy Gaylord was won by Jeanne (Hayes) Warren '61. Maggie Birch's basket was won by Reidun (Gundersen) Meissner '42. Jeanne Warren's wonderful basket of fabulous home-made almond roca, made from a recipe from Jeanne's mother Anna Hayes, QA Home Ec teacher, was won by Kim Turner '61, who also won the 50/50 jar of cash ($37) + $37 to the alums. The basket given by Ed Bol and Connie Haas was won by Kathy Gaylord '63.

Our faculty table was down to one this luncheon, with five former teachers and three spouses in attendance. The UW-Cal crew races were being held during the day, but inside the atmosphere was highly charged with Grizzly laughter and the overall sense of good will which comes about when we are together. Hope to see you all at the Fall Luncheon!

Vern Emery—QA Mentor

By Cliff Skelton '46

If we are fortunate in life we encounter a few mentors who steer us in the right directions. For many boys at Queen Anne during the 40s (war years), such a person was Vern Emery. Vern was our YMCA Secretary, holding forth in a very old, leaky-roofed, converted church (ed. the Queen Anne Congregational), the subsequent site of the KIRO TV tower on Queen Anne Ave. He rode herd on three Hi Y clubs, and a couple of Jr. Hi Ys (for underclassmen). Later in that decade, the YMCA transferred him to its University branch.

When we had finished college, and got home from the Korean War, Vern phoned several of us, suggesting that we start a Y's Men's Club, which we did, with members mostly Queen Anne and Roosevelt grads. For several years we met and had dinner at that Y, supported its activities, and bettered ourselves in the process.

With his success in Seattle, Vern was promoted to Secretary of the Boise YMCA, where his members included the Governor of Idaho. After a very successful stint there, Vern ran for, and was elected to, the County's Board of Governors. Until his death, in 1985, Vern kept in touch with several of us, and called us to have lunch whenever he was in Seattle. To this day several of us exchange Christmas cards with his widow, Barbara. Until the day he died we were "his boys".

Magnolia Icon Closes

By Sherry (Peck) Moody '66

Mike and Alex (Dalinkus) Smith, both '67, closed their LeRoux Fine Apparel store in Magnolia, at the end of May. After thirty years, they made the decision that the time was right to enjoy more personal time. He came from Magnolia, she from Queen Anne. Because of their QA High School roots, they kindly sold our alumni memorabilia for many years, letting us take up shelf space for caps, mugs, playing cards, clothing, etc., out of the goodness of their Grizzly hearts.

During all of those years, Mike and Alex were very active in the community, each having served as president of the Magnolia Chamber of Commerce. They had front row seats to the comings and goings in the village they call home. On almost any morning, Mike could be seen sweeping the sidewalk in front of their store. Much of it from the Magnolia trees on W. McGraw! They bought the store in 1985 from Russ Jacobson, their friend and mentor. The original owner, in 1948, was Bud LeRoux. That's 67 years, quite remarkable! Tim Moody '66, remembered buying his first pair of jeans, years ago, from Russ, who let him set up a credit account. Not bad for an 18 year old. He was a customer to the end ... stories like this helped make LeRoux the kind of place that caused folks to keep coming back, wherever they were. And they did. Roughly 50% of their business was from outside Magnolia.

So from the QAHSAA, we thank you, Mike and Alex, for your years of generosity. Best wishes for your new life. Go Grizzlies!

QAHS Class of '65 50th Reunion

By Sandra (Rustuen) Smith '65

By the time you are reading this, our QAHS Class of '65 reunion (June 19-21) will be history. But..., at the time of writing this article, we are just three weeks away from the "Big Event". To date, we have 216 classmates registered for the reunion, but hope to have a few more. Myself and Claudia (Kettles) Lovgren, served as the co-chairs. Our two MCs are Dr. Alan Fine, our Senior Class President, and Kurt Schnebele, our Student Body President. We also launched our own Class of '65 website in April: www.qahsclassof65.com. A special thank you to Elizabeth (Weeks) Pankey '68, for allowing us to use her cartoon of a Grizzly floating in the 5th floor swimming pool at QAHS. Elizabeth is the sister of June (Weeks) Carney, one of our classmates.

History Books Still Available

Our Association is funded primarily by donations, plus sales of merchandise and raffles. We are unique among alumni groups in not having paid memberships. Your tax deductible gifts are greatly appreciated and needed not just to provide scholarships but also to cover the KUAY, logo merchandise purchases and miscellaneous expenses. All our efforts are by unpaid volunteers. In these difficult times we hope you can find a way to help the QAHSAA continue its mission.

second Saturday in August. This year the event is August 8th and any and all Grizzlies who may wish to participate send an email to wwerners@aol.com or call Eric at 206-285-0780. Bob Thelen '78 has retired from Ride the Ducks of Seattle, last November, and received his 'bobblehead' award in recognition. He is now working for Starline Luxury Coach and providing Seattle tours for cruise ship guests and charters with 45 ft. long coaches. He and friends of the Last Resort Fire Department are still looking for a home for the antique fire engines and the historic archives. He and wife Sandy will celebrate their 28th anniversary on Christmas Eve 2015.

Finally, two Grizzlies have encountered me on Metro buses – one from 1966 and one from 1971 (if memory serves) but I didn't have a chance to write down your names, for which I humbly apologize. Just know that if you send me your names I can include you in the next KUAY. Kudos to our Grizzlies who get published!

winner, and renew old high school friendships. Come early and reserve a table for your class. For more information, send an email to hawkes32@comcast.net. This has become a Grizzly tradition for 42 years now.

We're the over fifty generation

You say you have the Grizzly Spirit, then perhaps you will volunteer to get involved with the MWOQA. Not that long ago, Grizzly women were invited to join. To move forward with Bob's Tournament and the Christmas Luncheon, our need is to recruit volunteers from the classes of the 60's and 70's. My belief is that when the time comes you'll take the vitamin pill and join us. If interested, send an email to hawkes32@comcast.net. We hope you will invest in renewing and preserving old Queen Anne friendships.
