• "STAR-SPANGLED BANNER"

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, and the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
O, say, does the Star-spangled banner still wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore, dimly seen thro' the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haghty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected now shines on the stream.
'Tis the Star-spangled banner, O, long may it wave
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave!

Oh, thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
 Between their lov'd homes and the war's desolation;
 Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n rescued land,
 Praise the pow'r that hath made and preserv'd us a nation!
 Then conquer we must when our cause it is just,
 And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"
 And the Star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave
 O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave!
