17 Scholarships Awarded Again!

by Kerry McMahan, '54

Our 19th annual scholarship competition resulted in the award of 17 scholarships for the second year in a row, a number possible only through the continuing, exceptional generosity of reunion groups, 10 individual donations and the collective donations of many alumni. This year, 72 application forms were requested, and 32 applications were submitted.

The following alumni or groups donated scholarships: Douglas Lorentz, '72; Bob Houbregs, '49 (two); Richard C. Johnston, '54; Ella Wesa (Redfern) Wernecke, '35; Annette (Marshall) Reese, '44; the family of Jim Rafferty, '45; friends of Betty (Pipes) Mead, '44; Kerry McMahan, '54 and family; one anonymous donor and five from the collective scholarship fund contributions of many alumni.

PICNIC August 19th

QA alums will gather at Magnolia Park Sunday, August 19th for the eighth annual All Alumni Picnic. It's a popular "bring your own basket" affair with the Alumni Association providing hot dogs, coffee and soft drinks. Park Department regulations prohibit beer and other alcoholic beverages in the park. The picnic starts at 11:30 AM and lasts until 6:00 PM. QA logo merchandise will be available for sale and a raffle is planned.

Meet Your Editor

by Barbara (Wilson) Nelson, '58

I asked Editor Hal to set aside some space for me in the Kuay. I did this because those of you who are not fortunate enough to know Hal personally might like to "Meet your Editor". After a "lively discussion", euphemism for "battle", Hal agreed, but duly noted, "under duress". So here's what I have to say.

Baby Hal Will was brought from Portland, Oregon to Magnolia Bluff almost 75 years ago. He attended Magnolia School from the first through the eighth grades. Hal's youthful escapades were revealed in Growing Up In Magnolia Was a Blast written by John Hahn, Seattle Post Intelligencer columnist. The article appeared in the P.I., November 9, 2000, as a result of Hahn reading the book published by the Magnolia Community Club titled Magnolia: Memories & Milestones. Our Editor, Hal, contributed three

Fall Banquet

by Barbara (Wilson) Nelson

The Queen Anne High School Alumni Association Annual Fall Banquet will be held Saturday October 13, 2001, from 5 to 8:30 pm at the Yankee Grill, located at 5300 24th Avenue Northwest in the Ballard neighborhood of Seattle.

We are celebrating the Association's 20th anniversary. Yes, the Grizzly spirit remains active and strong! This will be a Great Grizzly Gathering!

This year's complete dinner menu features a choice of entrees: Top Sirloin Steak served with baked potato or Seafood Stuffed Sole served with rice pilaf. Caesar salad, dinner rolls with butter, fresh garden vegetables, regular and decaf coffee or tea and apple crisp for dessert rounds out the meal.

Complimentary carafes of wine will grace each table. A no host bar will offer additional beverage choices. Music from swing to rock and roll will be provided to please grads' listening and dancing needs. For Grizzlies who feel lucky there will be ample chances to have their raffle tickets drawn for great prizes.

A short Alumni Association business meeting will be conducted during the evening. Honored guests will include former faculty members. We are pleased to note their participation has increased over the past year and it is great to see them in attendance.

Alumni are urged to make their reservations early. There is a coupon on page 15 of this issue. A ticket to this great party costs only $30.

Join us to celebrate! Our school has been closed for 20 years but the Grizzly spirit lives on!

Who's News in 2001

by John Hennes, '51, email: jhennes@nwnexus.com , 206-284-2266
by Kim Turner, '61, email: kturner@spl.org

Who's News items come from all over - newspapers, letters, magazines, etc. We can't find all the news without you. If you have news of Grizzlies, please jot them down, or clip them out, and send them to: KUAY Editor, QA Alumni Assoc., PO Box 9128, Seattle, WA 98109. Photos are especially wanted.

'30s

Katherine (Griffin) Keaton, '33, lives in Chula Vista, CA. She retired in 1971 from 34 years in the Pacific Telephone Company. Widowed since 1990, she keeps in touch with several of the old gang, from Seattle to Mesa, AZ.

One of this year's scholarships was donated by Ella Wesa (Redfern) Wernecke, '35 in memory of her brother, Sutton Redfern, '29. Sutton, who died in 1983, may be of interest to some Grizzlies as the inventor of "Egg Beaters", cholesterol-free egg substitutes.

Beverly (Player) Muir, '37, of Aurora, CO, more thanks for the Kuay - she says, "If you're over 50 and you wake up in the morning without an ache or pain you're dead! I am surely alive today!"

Dick Trudeau, '38, of Lafayette, CA in the bay area, has been involved for eight years in managing the William Penn Mott, Jr. Memorial Fund, raising money for park exhibits. Dick was the former manager of the East Bay Regional Park District. He sometimes sees former classmate Rosemary (Weil) O'Hearn, '38, who lives in San Francisco.

'40s

Josephine (Strelo) Irwin, '40, - "All of you on the KUAY are doing a fantastic job." She loved the article on Thelma Chisholm, as they worked together while Jo was in the Girls' Club.

Dolores (Krininger) Acurio, '43, - has returned to the Seattle area after 25 years in the eastern U.S., and enjoys the KUAY.

Millie (Warner) Finney, '44, had a stroke in November, 2000, but is coming along well and is grateful for the ability to write again. "Kuay - wonderful."

Bonnie McClintock, '47, has been living in San Francisco since 1950. She is retired from the Univ. of California at San Francisco, School of Dentistry. She notes about nostalgia, "Although the memories of QAHS are not that great when you remember the Gold Star Assemblies during the war years."

Letter from Loretta (Nachand) Sperling, '48, from her home in Frankston, Texas says, "Big thank you to everyone involved in putting the Kuay together." She says it's keeping the "outlanders" in touch. She has some wonderful memories of people and places on Queen Anne.

A typical remembrance of Thelma Chisholm, Girl's Club Advisor for many years, who passed away in March, 2000, was sent in by Dottie (Mace) Gooch, '48. "Thanks for the nice article on Miss Chisholm. She was a real gift to all of us girls. What a wonderful example she set."

Sarah (Jepson) Coleman, '49, also extols the virtue of the KUAY "For keeping us in touch..."

'50s

Bryce Little, Jr., '50, is retiring this year after 40 years of service in the Presbyterian Church (USA). He lives in Pasadena, CA, with his wife Phyllis and has spent the last seven years as executive director of the San Gabriel Presbytery (region), leaving it much more inclusive than he found it.

Peggy (Eskelin) Powell, '51 writes from Lynnwood that she will be missing her 50th reunion in June because she will be "deep in the heart of Romania". She is retired from the University of Washington and has traveled extensively in the past decade.

Zonya (Hemrich) Melseth, '53, writes us a note to claim five sets of twins for her class: Arch & John Watson, Donna & Mary Stocking, Zarya & Zonya Hemrich, Jay & Joanne Pearson and Coleen & Heather Youngs. Can any other class top that?

Lee (Buddy) Dickinson, '53, of Grants Pass, OR is looking for Jack Shea, '52. They both had newspaper routes and both were in the Air Force. They lost touch many years ago. We have no address for Jack, but if someone knows his whereabouts and contacts the Editor we may be able to put them in touch.

Herberta (Howe) Gray, '58 writes from Lacey, WA, with the infectious comment, "Just today in a parking lot a man was almost star-struck by my Queen Anne license plate frame. I asked him if he went there, and he said, 'No, but I used to live in Seattle.' We are just so cool!"

'60s

Passing a monumental milestone is Kim Turner, '61, who marked 40 years with the Seattle Public Library on May 10th. The library system itself has been in existence for 110 years. The main downtown library closed in June for a two-year relocation while a shiny new library is built. Kim was interviewed repeatedly in local newspapers and television stories because of his knowledge of the system and his pungent comments on changes in modern library usage. He led tours of the then-new main library in 1960 (replacing the old, stone Carnegie library) and will be around in 2003 for the next opening.

Local dental hygienist wins national honor, was the headline. It described Patricia Doyle, '61, who was named recipient of the 2001 ADHA Warner Lambert Award for Excellence in Dental Hygiene. She has been in this field for 36 years, teaches at the U.W. and volunteers at Harborview Medical Center. She has worked with people with disabilities for years.

A career in music became a career in computers and internet for Currie Morrison, '63. Twenty-three years as a music teacher in various grade levels was followed by ten years in technology. He built the first web site in a Washington state school in 1994 and designed the first total building network in a Seattle school. He still plays his trombone.

'70s

Congratulations are again due to Ruben Van Kempen, '70, who is music and dramatic arts director at Roosevelt High School in Seattle. They produced an outstanding version of "Anything Goes" this spring.

Sheela (Cavin) Mackenzie, '71, sends greetings from Phoenix, AZ, and asks if anyone from '71 is planning a reunion this year. (Yes they are and "Class of '71" reunion group is now in contact with Sheela).

Bob Shrewsbury, '71, and brother Ric Shrewsbury, '74, owners of Western Towboat Company, just launched their 120 foot tug Gulf Titan. It is their third Titan class tug and increases their towboat fleet to 17.

The Caldirola family has been busy.

Who's News

Marcia Caldirola, '72 and her husband Kris Salzer moved from Cape Town, South Africa to Boston last year. She works as a college recruiter. Brian Caldirola, '74, was the student body president in school and is currently a screenwriter for the "Friends" TV show. He wrote a script starring Bruce Willis. Barbara Caldirola, '69, is a retired attorney and mother of two, now living in Richmond Beach. All of this was reported by their brother, Dennis Caldirola, who did not go to Queen Anne, but is director of the FESTA Italiana Seattle.

Golf can provide fascinating links. Jennifer (James) Wilson, '75 of Port Townsend, and her husband were coincidentally paired up with an older couple from Sequim at the Chevy Chase course on Discovery Bay. By the end of the first hole she had discovered her partner was Dorothy (Reidel) Carr, '33. Jennifer describes her as a bright, spry, healthy lady. What was her secret to fitness? "I always played with the boys."

Cheryl (Cobb) Smith, '76, was honored at North Beach Elementary School this May. She was given the Golden Beaver Award for her outstanding volunteer work.

Bruce Lougheed, '76, is now a fellow Fairbanksan reports Julie Rafferty, '76, from Fairbanks, AK. Bruce helped move 24 tons of food and straw for the dog teams in the 2001 Yukon Quest dog sled race (1000 miles from Whitehorse to Fairbanks).

Port Orchard is the home of Brian Pickard, '76, and his wife Molly. Brian has been principal of South Colby Elementary for the last eight years and has been an educator for 20 years. He is active in the Association of Washington School Principals.

Randy Fitzgerald, '78, and his life-partner, Francisco, adopted newborn twins in February of last year. In order to have a common family name they have all adopted the family name Marinez. Randy Marinez continues his psychotherapy practice in Seattle's Pioneer Square. They live on Vashon Island.

Polson, MT is home to Dawn Lynch, '79, who has been there for five years. She works as a paralegal/welfare caseworker. Her husband owns an upholstery shop.

Frantz H. Coe Elementary School, a landmark on Seventh Ave. W. since 1907, burned to the ground early Sunday, Jan. 21, 2001. The school had been closed to students and was undergoing a major remodeling with a new wing and a separate gym and cafeteria being added. Coe students have been housed in Magnolia Elementary during the remodel.

The cause of the fire has never been determined, and after months of police investigation the school site was finally released back to the School District in May and the site has been cleared for new work. The loss of the school has been felt by everyone in the area for its link to Queen Anne's past. The school was designed by James Stephen, who designed many other Seattle schools, including Queen Anne High School.

A brand new Coe school will be built on the site. It will not be a duplicate of the old school, but will reflect many of the architectural elements. Columns in front, the original window designs and siding will echo the past. The interior will feature a three-story atrium. The fire was so intense that the new wing's steel structure was twisted and made useless. Fortunately, the new, separate gym and cafeteria building will be usable.

Work on the new replacement building is to start this fall, with hope of occupancy in late fall 2002. Students continue to be housed at Magnolia.

Editor

chapters to the book plus Photographer Hal's 1947 photo of moonlight over Elliott Bay from Magnolia graces the back of the book's dust jacket. This is a good place to mention that youthful Hal attended photography school.

Hal graduated from Queen Anne High School in 1944 and entered the U of W, but he was only there briefly before he reported for WWII service. He was hoping for the Navy but their quotas were full so he was put in the Army infantry and ended up in Cebu, Philippine Islands at the end of the war. He remained in the Cebu area for another year operating Army tugboats to support revival of the maritime industry there. This was fine with seaman Hal for he had always had a love for the maritime and, in fact, spent his 16th summer working aboard tugs on Puget Sound.

In talking with Hal, I get the impression that his maritime love shaped his life. He met Shirley on a boat in 1947 and this past year they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, following their elopement in 1950. Hal says she could have done much better, but he couldn't have made it without her. Hal caught the Polio bug in 1949. He has operated from a wheelchair for 52 years.

I can share with you all that being with these two is a constant reminder of how good life is when you love and share yourself with others. I cannot begin to count the many meetings, with meals provided by Shirley, that are held at their house so that all of us Grizzlies can enjoy our Kuays.

Hal and Shirley have owned boats from 1962 through 1986 and they built their steam launch Charlie during this time. They have been active in the Northwest Steam Society since its formation in 1973.

Hal joined the Puget Sound Maritime Historical Society in 1963 and was Editor of their journal The Sea Chest for its first ten years. He served as President for two years in the seventies and remains involved today.

Worker Hal was employed 41 years with the Fluke Corporation, 25 years in manufacturing supervision then in computer support functions until retirement in 1996.

Grizzly Hal joined the QAHSAA the summer of 1997 volunteering to be Editor of the February 1998 Kuay. As many of you know, he continues in that position, brilliantly I might add. In addition, he has served as Treasurer, served on our Finance Committee, maintains our database, responds to emails and letters from alumni members but his most disliked and worrisome task was researching and filing our Association's income tax report. I know that Hal would want it pointed out that he has much help from other volunteers so I am so noting, however these folks know who they are and this article is about you, Hal.

In closing I want to say a heartfelt thanks to you from all of us for your countless hours of volunteered time to this Association, to you and Shirley for sharing yourselves, your hospitality and your generosity, and thanks to you Hal, for producing outstanding Kuays for all of us to read and enjoy.

KUAY and QAHSAA

The KUAY is published by the Queen Anne High School Alumni Association, free for members and friends of the Association, at PO Box 9128, Seattle, WA 98109-0128. To be placed on the mailing list or to help with the association activities, see the coupon on page 15 (donation urged but not required). Board meetings are generally held on the third Monday of each month and are open to all graduates. Call Barbara (Wilson) Nelson 206-567-4180 for details.

Outdoor Activities we encourage you to attend are:

The Magnolia Summerfest which will be held August 3, 4 and 5 on the playground north of the McGraw Street businesses. Your Alumni Association will have a booth there to display old annuals and Kuays, plus there will be logo merchandise for sale.

The Alumni All-Classes Picnic August 19 in Magnolia Park. Free food and drink. Raffle and logo merchandise for sale. Come share your memories.

The President's Corner

by Barbara (Wilson) Nelson, '58

Yes, our school is closed, but with great pride I point out to you all that THE GRIZZLY SPIRIT LIVES ON! It is hard to realize that it has been 20 years since a grass roots committee planned "The Last Hurrah" and from that committee our Alumni Association was formed. This year we celebrate our 20th anniversary.

We are a no-dues, volunteer organization that has awarded 107 scholarships, annually publishes two 16-page KUAYS mailing them out to 12,600 members. Most QA class reunion committees depend on us to provide class mailing lists from our database.

We've had 19 Annual Fall Banquets and for the past several years have added a Spring Luncheon and a Summer Picnic. This year we set up a website. I am proud of our Association and proud to serve as your president. I have to think that the original committee must be very pleased with what they started and how it has grown. I hope so many of you join us at the this years Fall Banquet to celebrate our 20th anniversary that we have standing room only.

GRIZZLYS FOREVER!

Try our rejuvenated website.

It's newly updated and should be kept current from now on. We recommend you check it out periodically as we improve our ability to communicate with you more frequently.

It could become the perfect place to offer our alumni email list for your use. Refer questions or suggestions to Association President Barbara Nelson at: barnell@aol.com.

The Association would like to promote more activities in future years but we need more participation from alumni members who have not yet become involved. We would be very happy to have the participation of more from the the classes of the '60s and '70s but we welcome ideas from all.

Dennis and His Dad, Hank Ketcham

Last March, Marilyn (Leche) Wicks, '41, sent us an article from the San Francisco Chronicle reminding us of the 50th birthday of the Dennis the Menace comic strip. We sent a Kuay birthday card to Dennis in care of his dad, and creator, QA alum Hank Ketcham, '37. We received the card below in return.

Hank Ketcham Dead at 81

We were saddened to learn of Hank's passing June 1, 2001 in Pebble Beach, California, where he has lived for many years. Like so many former Grizzlies, Hank had fond memories of Queen Anne High and his years there. He attended his Class of 1937's 60th reunion at the Museum of Flight in 1997.

McCurdy Chosen as Outstanding Faculty Member at American University

by John Hennes, '51

"I found out early, that a day I wasn't writing, was a day I wasn't happy," notes Howard McCurdy, '59. He has followed this philosophy for 35 years during a long career in public affairs and teaching.

McCurdy, a professor of public administration in the School of Public Affairs at American University, in Washington, D.C., was honored this spring with the University Faculty Award for Outstanding Scholarship, Research and Professional Contributions. He graduated from Queen Anne High School in 1959, followed by a bachelor's and a master's degree (1962/65) from the University of Washington and a Ph.D. in public administration from Cornell (1969).

At Queen Anne, McCurdy was a Kuay Editor and in the Ski Club. He notes how, in the age of Sputnik, he and his friends would build rockets in their basements that they would launch from parks in Magnolia. The dawn of the space age. His most memorable teachers included Ernest Charland, Chris Kato and Sylvia Weinstein (now Paul).

McCurdy went to Washington, D.C. in 1966 during the excitement and challenge of the space race when he won an internship with the Executive Office of the President, now the Office of Management and Budget. The next year he signed on as an assistant professor at AU. His time away from the university has included a consulting assignment with the Kenya National Parks, a Fulbright Scholarship to the University of Zambia, and the Charles A. Lindbergh Chair in Aerospace History at the Smithsonian Institution. His summers, in recent years, have been spent at the University of Washington.

Space Policy and NASA have been the subjects of much of McCurdy's research in public administration. He authored four books on space policy in the 1990s. Inside NASA explored the changing organizational culture at NASA and won the 1994 Henry Adams Prize for the best book on the history of the federal government. McCurdy's latest book Imagining Space is his first work for a popular audience. The book, co-authored with Roger Launius, chief historian for NASA, is a history of the public's changing views of space.

Acknowledgements

Every year there are generous supporters of the Grizzly spirit who give materials for our archives or services in support of picnics, luncheons and banquets. We wish to thank all of you who provide this support. It is part of the Queen Anne legacy:

Ruth (White) Scott, '48, donated her annuals for '45 and '46.

Pat (Standard) Woodhouse, '58, for annuals, clippings and class material from Dorothy (Lawshe) Tessman, '25.

Bonnie Valiton, '64, for Grizzly annuals from 1962, '64, '72 and '73, donated in memory of David Valiton, '65, and Mary Valiton, '74.

Planning a Reunion?

Your Queen Anne High School Alumni Association can help

by Glo (Gleason) Holcomb, '46

The important thing is to start early! We suggest a year in advance. Space goes quickly and there aren't that many Saturday nights to choose from during the most popular dates. Select two or three alternate dates for the event and what kind of an affair and for how many days of activities. We have a list of locations where reunions have been held that may help your selection committee.

We have an up-to-date database of names, addresses and many phone numbers for all classes. Also, info on teachers of your era if you care to include them.

Publicity in the Kuay is very helpful so please note the January 1 deadline for the mid February issue and June 1 for the mid July issue. There is a calendar of reunions with contacts and some space for short articles to ballyhoo your function.

In our warehouse are some memorabilia to be loaned as well as some decorations. The Seattle Public Schools Archives have many appropriate items to loan.

Occasionally the old school building, now apartments, is available for tours by contacting the manager.

Reunion planning can be fun but it is also time consuming. There are alternatives such as Reunions With Class, 425-644-1044, who have worked with many Queen Anne reunion groups. There are other reunion businesses listed in the phone book.

We appreciate being invited to display and sell our logo merchandise at your reunion. The proceeds help support the many Association activities. This is a good way for out-of-towners to see the shirts, caps, mugs and license frames and take a symbol of QA home with them. All you have to do is contact us and we do the rest.

Many classes donate surplus funds after their reunions to the scholarship fund.

Some classes, especially in the thirties, hold their reunions at the August all-classes picnic. It takes much less effort and usually results in a pretty good turn-out. We like to have advance notice so the picnic committee can be prepared.

Class of '55 Celebrates 45th

by Jean (Hendrickson) White, '55

It was August 26, 2000, held at the Sand Point Country Club and attended by over 100 people. Approximately 65 were classmates. This was about 15 less than were present for our 40th. Conflicting family plans kept many away, as often happens, while many more are most enthusiastic about making sure they attend the 50th. We had a great time and dedicated the work done by our committee to our past, now deceased, Chairman, Barbara (Caldwell) McMahan, and named her Honorary Chairman. Her interest and caring nature for all in our class, unending hard work and dedication to the continuance of our reunions over the years was more than commendable and we miss her very much. We lost two members of our committee in the past five years, plus several others in the class. These passings are a reminder that life, our most precious and fragile commodity, can be taken from us before we know it, and we need to make the most of our time on earth before it's too late.

We are already making plans for our 50th, with the first goal - that of keeping in contact with people through Internet web sites and email. With the dot com world constantly moving forward, more communication opportunities provide links for lost classmates to find us while exploring the web. Our Memory Book included email addresses of respondents and allows for accessibility to all who may know where others can be located. Friends will notify friends and a giant web of communication can be developed. With the strength and support of our hardworking committee, we should have a 50th to remember.

A reminder to all in our class - please, please let us know when you change residences and if you know addresses of other classmates who have not been receiving the KUAY or class of '55 information. It is so important to keep our roster current for future correspondence, and it makes our job so much easier.

It Was the Thirtieth For the Class of '70

by Ruben Van Kempen, '70

The 30 year reunion of the class of 1970 was held in September of 2000. The event started with some Grizzlies at Tini Bigs Lounge at the bottom of the hill on Friday evening. The following night a group of 209 great looking Grizzlies gathered at the Shilshole Bay Beach Club. They came from as far away as Beijing, China. One has seven children from the same marriage and some have become in-laws (Dennis Conforto and Kim Blackham's children married). Committee Chair, Ruben Van Kempen, thanks the committee at large: Randi Bedayan, Rick Borish, Linda (Boyle) Cook, Kal (Kissler) Taylor, Tom Napa, Tyrone (Noble) Townsend, Beth (Redman) Campbell, Judy (Shogren) Klebe, Jeannie (Wirth) Greaves and Dean Amundson for making the event a spectacular one. Photos from the reunion may be seen on the web at:

www.orgsites.com/wa/kuay

Ruben hopes that articles and updates from the reunion will be listed on the site as well by mid February. The reunion was coordinated by Reunions with Class out of Bellevue - they and the QA Alumni Association helped find many lost classmates. The 25th reunion is planned for the year 2005.

Men of QA Golf Tournament

by Glo (Gleason) Holcomb, '46

The third annual golf tournament, sponsored by the Alliance for Education, will take place at Mount Si Golf Club at noon on Friday, September 14, 2001. Ladies are included. Proceeds go toward sports scholarships for children or grandchildren of anyone who attended Queen Anne High School

For further information and to obtain a registration form, call Chairman Jim Bledsoe, '61, at 206-522-4819.

Party Like It's 1971

by Anita Carmin, '71

What ever happened to the Class of '71?

Hundreds of 48-year-olds will discover the answer August 17 when they gather to celebrate their 30-year reunion. "Party like it's 1971!" is the mandate for the Friday-night event to be held at the funky General Petroleum Museum located at 1526 Bellevue Avenue on Seattle's Capitol Hill. The reunion committee has planned a fun, informal reunion — with a live band, a no-host bar, and lots of appetizer-type food. When asked, grads said they preferred a casual, lively party over a dress-up, sit-down event. Striving to keep the cost down and the attendance up, the reunion committee has set a nominal $25 admission fee which can be paid at the door. Although most grads have said they prefer a "classmates only" event, spouses and significant others are welcome to attend — provided they won't be bored. The reunion will take place from 6 PM to midnight.

The reunion committee has been working hard to locate lost classmates and notify them of the reunion. Judging from the enthusiastic response to date, a great turnout is expected. Those who've yet to RSVP are urged to do so immediately so the committee can finalize catering arrangements.

Grizzly Angels

Each year the legacy of Queen Anne High School is expressed in part by the Alumni Scholarship Program. An ongoing effort to provide scholarships for Grizzly descendants today and to provide a permanent fund for scholarships in the future. The contributions of our many Angels is what fuels the Queen Anne legacy. Most gifts to the Association are modest and all contributors are listed in the Angel list. A few grads and some of the reunion classes have pondered the value of our scholarship activities and chosen to give substantially larger amounts. These provide a significant boost and are most appreciated. Note: an asterisk (*) after a donor's name indicates that scholarship use was specified.

A Kapers Audition

by Allan Taylor, '44

The story by Bob Lajala and the inset, "A Challenge", in the last (February 2001) issue of the Kuay inspired this contribution and another on the bottom of page 13.

We all hear about guns at schools and the terrible damage they can cause. I reflect how times have changed since we were there. I have in mind the time we decided to answer the call for a skit or act for the Kuay Kapers. The decision of a group of us was to act out a reading of the R. W. Service poem "The Shooting of Dan McGrew". I pretty much had the doggerel memorized so I was to be the narrator. You, Hal, were elected as Dan McGrew, Geri Marty, the Lady Known as Lou, and I think Bill McElroy was going to be the Stranger Fresh from the Creeks. There must have been others since the poem starts "A bunch of the boys--", etc.

We must have gone over it lightly once or maybe less. With little or no feel for show business and misplaced confidence and no appreciation of how unsuited the poem was for a skit, since it is mostly narrative and very little action, we showed up for the audition in the auditorium. Now here is where judgment then and current conditions collide.

The highpoint in the poem is the shoot-out between the Stranger and Dan. For this, guns are indicated. Someone's father, not mine or yours, owned a couple of revolvers that weren't locked up. That someone also had access to blank cartridges loaded with black powder. With the innocence of the young these were brought to the audition and, yes, at the appropriate moment, twelve large BOOMS occurred. Smoke! My gosh there was smoke enough to chew from all that black powder. The burning powder grains went flying across the stage. Everyone, I think was stunned by the noise and the overall effect. The curtain came down even before the Stranger got kissed by Lou.

I can't remember who the teacher was (it was probably Esther Uhden) who was tasked with the assignment to screen the auditions but I recall that she allowed that our efforts needed further work and we shouldn't plan on being part of the performance. Or as is said today, we weren't ready for prime time.

Now the amazing thing to me, especially in light of today's climate is that, first, we had no qualms about having guns in school, and moreover, firing them extensively. Second, no one came rushing into the auditorium to find out what in hell was going on. No Mr. Luther or Mr. Farmer nor any other teacher. Further, we never heard about it later. At least I don't recall any admonis hment or caution.

How times and concerns have changed. The contrast of then and now is almost frightening or in another way saddening. A naive time perhaps. Anyway, I remembered it as one of the crazy things that we did as teenagers attempting to be contributors to our world.

The Popular Spring Luncheon

by Bill Tobin, '46

The fourth Annual Spring Luncheon was held May 5th at the Yankee Grill in Ballard. A congenial crowd of eighty "Grizzlies" were in attendance. As with past functions, the conversations and remembrances of days gone by were lively. Barbara (Wilson) Nelson, '58, Association President, gave a brief welcome to the group before lunch was served.

There was a good showing of teachers in attendance, those being: Warren and Evelyn Arnhart, Eva Baudin, Walt and Lenore Bone, John and Coralea Doty, Ellen Egbers, widow of Eldon Egbers, Carl and Lorraine Fulkerson, Marv and Shirle Hartley, Chris and Jean Kato, Helen King, Alice and Rodman Miller, Jack and Sylvia Weinstein Paul, Marilyn Seefeld Rabura, Bob and Marty Tate, Malcolm Waite and Dan and Ann Walther.

Following the lunch, several of the teachers spoke of their remembrances of their time at Queen Anne on the "Hilltop," which were very enjoyable. I thought only the students had fun.

The luncheon wound up with a raffle of some very nice items. Again, a large basket of kitchen items was donated by David Holcomb, '72 of Chef 'N. Other raffle items were donated by QAHSAA Board members.

The raffle gifts, of which there were many, went to the following: Gary Martin, '57, Pat (Cardwell) Marrs, '48, Marilyn Rabura, Ardena (Bramwell) Pendleton, '56, Ellen Egbers, Helen King, Marv Hartley, and Glo (Gleason) Holcomb, '46.

Alice (Whalley) Holcomb, Q.A. class of '21, won the very decorative centerpiece from her table. Alice flew to Norton, Massachusetts in May for her 75th Class Reunion at Wheaton College. She was accompanied by granddaughters Nancy (Holcomb) Hawley, '80 and Jenny (Holcomb) Skaar.

Thanks to Ed Bol, '81, of Northwest Print Brokers, for the attractive programs he printed and donated. Also to, Dennis Helmick, '62, for a generous donation for raffle items.

Scholarship Winners

The scholarship winners were notified of their selection either during spring graduation award ceremonies or, for schools with no award ceremonies, by U.S. mail. Because of space limitations, a very brief summary of each winner's accomplishments follows; the winners, in alphabetical order are:

Shayne Clyburn

Sylvia Erickson

Brianna Lindner

Andrea Miller

Moriarty

Joan Sackett

Allison Stover

Annelisa Tornberg

Justine

We're sorry that photos for eight winners did not arrive in time to be included here.

Joshua Burnell - Josh graduated from Mercer Island High School, Mercer Island, WA, at the top of his class, one of four with a 4.0 GPA and was one of four graduates selected as valedictorian. His academic plan included two "integrated block" programs, consisting of honors American studies and mathematics / science. Additional scholastic achievement included honors English and advanced placement Spanish, chemistry, calculus and biology. Josh was awarded the Grace (Hatton) Johnston Memorial Scholarship donated by Richard C. Johnston, '54, in memory of his mother, Grace, '28.

Outside the classroom Josh participated in track, earned three varsity cross-country letters and volunteered in community service work through both the National Honor Society and his church youth group. Additionally, he works part time as a dining room waiter at the Covenant Shores Retirement Community on Mercer Island. ## In Memoriam: Grizzlies Gone, But Not Forgotten

We learn of our Alums' passings from many sources. Some are mailed in by friends and relatives of the deceased while others come from alumni kind enough to keep us current. We appreciate input from any and all sources. We learn of some many months or years late so you will see some old dates that seem like typos. They are not. Starting in the February, 2001 issue, the redundant word "died" has been omitted.

Elmere (Parquette) Kroft, teacher 1955 to 1981, March 28, 2001, in Seattle.

Thanks For Your Help

We sadly report 63 memorials in this issue. We know we have missed some in the Seattle papers if the families do not list the high school attended and we don't recognize the name of a deceased alumnus.

Betty (Pipes) Mead, '44, who passed away last Christmas, used to compare every potential name in the obits against our alumni database. Nobody is performing that very thorough search for us anymore so we must rely on the combined knowledge of our readers.

We solicit your input, especially from outside of Seattle. We'd rather be informed multiple times than miss a memorial.

We thank those who have been sending us memorial news the past six months.

Please send info to: Hal Will, 3629 NW 64th St. Seattle, WA 98107, or to: halathome@aol.com.

Applicants Wanted for Trade and Vocational Scholarships

by John Hennes, '51

Each year our Alumni Association gives out a number of academic scholarships, mostly to high school seniors heading off to college. Occasionally a student already in college or an older grad who is going back to school will apply and win.

We also have available each year one or more trade and vocational scholarships for students who are not headed for an academic four-year institution, but are taking training for a vocational career. These careers may be in such diverse fields as culinary arts, diesel technology, landscape design, massage therapy or medical technology, to name a few from recent recipients.

Applicants must be either QA grads or descendants of QA alums, including children or descendants by marriage. Applicants, however, are relatively scarce and we want to let our Grizzly Grads know that these opportunities are available. Evaluation is based partly on grades in high school, but even more on the clarity of the goals of the applicant and the recommendations received. If you know of someone who might fit this category, be sure to encourage him or her to apply next year.

Contact our Scholarship Chair, Kerry McMahan at 3025 NE 95th St., Seattle, WA 98115 or write to the Alumni Association at PO Box 9128, Seattle, WA 98109.

Kim's Musings

by Kim Turner, '61

Had some time to reflect during the recent film festival in Seattle: is it truly worth it to see 86 films in three and a half weeks? My answer is a resounding YES! Films make up a good third of the literature of our time, translated to another medium (film) but it remains literature, and contains both bad and good stories. Outside of the computer, what other inventions have changed our lives as much? (The car does not count: it is in a class by itself.)

How many Grizzlies were participants in the KOMO Quiz-down? Did your grade school win? Were high schools involved in similar programs (1945-1965)? This question comes to mind as a result of my recent participation in the Northwest Literacy Trivia Bee, held at the Town Hall in late May. My team didn't make the finals this year.

Marion (Edgerton) Parker, QA, 1934, and I were interviewed for a PBS video on the closure of the downtown library and memories of both the Carnegie and current structures. Hope summer is as fun for all of you as the Mariners are giving those of us who still enjoy the Great American game!

See you at the picnic in August - bring more grads with you!
Kim Turner, Vice-President QAHSAA

"I Remember"

by Betty (Latimer) McCoy, '48

I remember calling home from the first floor phone booth as Kapers practice had run late. Several boys who knew me picked up the booth as I talked, and turned it so the door faced the wall! They soon took pity and turned it around. I didn't panic as it occurred to me that I could phone for help.

New Website Maintainers for www.qagrizzlies.org.

We are happy to welcome Sandy Murray, '55, who has volunteered to maintain our Association website and has recruited expert help from classmate Joe Moloso, '55. Log on and see what's new.

QA Alumni Database

In the last issue, I happily announced a new, young volunteer to maintain our database. I even listed an email address for address changes. In this issue I must announce that didn't work out. I am still maintaining the database and will accept any pertinent emails at halathome@aol.com.

Memorial News Helpers

I want to thank the helpful readers who have been sending me obituary information about Queen Anne alums. Some helpful contributors are: Al Nelson, '36, Paul Mason, '40; Pat (Cunningham) Tewksbury, '44; Betty (Charouhas) Bebee, '45; John Hennes, '51; Terry Howard, '52; plus more. I sincerely appreciate their help.

Magnolia History Book

Another topic I talked about in the February issue was the interesting experience of being involved with six other Queen Anne graduates in the production of the book, Magnolia: Memories & Milestones. Then I went on to tell you that the first printing of 1,500 was sold out and the publisher, Magnolia Community Club, had no plan to reprint in the near future. However, about 38 readers reacted to the ad in the Kuay a year ago and acquired their precious copies.

The good news now is that there has been a second printing of 1,000 books and they are available from the newly-formed Magnolia Historical Society. Former Magnolians all over the country have bought, or want to buy, the book. Now they need more because their offspring keep borrowing their copy.

I have thoroughly enjoyed the new or renewed acquaintances via phone, mail or email as a result of the book. I am having interesting communications with classmates I haven't seen since high school, and that's 57 years ago.

Who knows, there may be material, and the desire, for volume II.

Visit Our Coupon Mall

The clip-out coupons are concentrated on the last page at the right so that your KUAY will not be unnecessarily damaged by their use. We hope that you will choose to use one or both of the coupons at the bottom of the page, for your contributions are our only source of financial support.

It's not too early to complete and mail the registration form for the Annual Banquet.

The one at the upper right may serve as a helpful communication tool to improve our mailing list and reduce post office return charges. KUAYs that are not deliverable cost your association $.60 each for address correction information. We'd rather learn it from you before our mailing.

Attention Snow Birds

You folks with summer and winter residences are reminded that we are willing to maintain a summer and winter address for you.

Bulk mail is not forwarded, so February Kuays returned as "Temporarily Away" because you had the post office forward your first class mail, may cause your address to be coded "Summer Only" and we will no longer mail to you in February.
