President’s Message
By Sally Villaluz Ghormley ’79

Hello Grizzlies!

2020 has been a year none of us will ever forget, I hope that everyone is staying safe and being careful. The pandemic has affected us all in many different ways, my thoughts and prayers go out to each and every one of you.

The 2nd Annual Alumni Homecoming Dance
October 17, 2020 ?!?!?! (Pandemic Permitting)
By Mary Cooke ’79

Hey all you Groovy Grizzlies, as we danced the night away at our First Annual Alumni Homecoming Dance, we never could have imagined that having a second annual dance in 2020 would depend on whether or not we could even gather and interact with one another.

IF we are able to get together, how the dance will look is still up in the air; like everything else in our world right now. Will we be able to have food? Maybe if it is pre-packaged… Will the drinks still flow freely at the Grizzly Watering Hole window?

Carl Fulkerson, 1928-2020
A remembrance by Steve Fulkerson ’71

Carl Fulkerson, best known as “Chief” and “Coach Fulkerson”, gently passed on June 1, 2020. His wife, Lorraine, was holding his hand in a comfortable setting. They were married for 68 years. Carl served in the Air Force, taught industrial arts at Queen Anne from the fall of 1955 to 1980 (when QAHS closed, completing the next eleven years at Roosevelt HS), coached boys’ baseball and was QAHS’s first girls’ fastpitch coach. He was very proud of his three children: Steve ’71, Ken ’73 and Linda ’75. His children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren were all extremely special.

We all have very different stories & experiences to share. I’m very grateful that I’ve already been working remotely for the last seven years now, my office assistant Charlie is always ready to help me between playing, barking at the neighbors and going out for walks. When we step outside now it’s an entirely different world that I never imagined, taking one day at a time. I’m thankful that my family is well. My mom, Ruth (Hanson) Ghormley ’42 moved to Aegis at Rodgers Park on Queen Anne around 1½ years ago. I’ve been very concerned about her and the rest of the community there since the discovery of Covid-19. The staff has been going above and beyond, exceeding the CDC protocols since the beginning of the outbreak keeping everyone safe.

Going through life right now it seems that community is being brought closer together with empathy for one another. We all need to work together with love, kindness and respect. There has to be justice and a stop to violence.

Mark your calendar for our upcoming second QA Alumni Homecoming Dance & Annual Meeting tentatively scheduled to be held at the Ballard Elks on Saturday, October 17, 2020 with Ron Bolin as DJ.

I’m proud to be a Grizzly.

Take care,
Sally

Roxi Ko

Hello everyone!
Boy, what a year 2020 has been already. I hope that everyone is staying safe and healthy through this whole pandemic, it is an unprecedented time! I, unfortunately, was laid off from my job at the commercial real estate firm, but it ended up being a blessing in disguise! I have now had time to focus on my own art business and work on a lot of cool projects I haven’t had time for until now! I’ve certainly kept myself busy with lots of creating and crafting during the quarantine. You can check out my work at www.etsy.com/shop/RoxiKoDesigns

Additional information is available at heritage memorial chapel.com. The family would cherish any remembrances that Grizzlies would consider sharing.

Every year we thank our alumni board and other volunteers who keep us going. None of our alums are paid for what they do. All Grizzlies owe these people many thanks. Without them there is no alumni association. We also acknowledge the following supporters. We need all of you. Please join in!

2020 Scholarship Awards Delayed
By Kerry McMahan ’54

Our 38th annual scholarship competition has been placed on “hold”. Washington State Governor Inslee’s Covid-19 restriction on group gatherings has kept the Scholarship Committee from meeting to select the 2020 winners. As of publication deadline time for this KUAY issue his restriction remains in effect. Our usual winner selection story is now scheduled for the winter issue of the KUAY.

It is worth noting that this year’s candidates have, in addition to the stress of preparing a strong application package, experienced the frustrations of gathering recommendations / references and transcripts from sources normally available but now closed or marginally available. Resourcefulness and perseverance have inadvertently become another competition requirement.

We recognize the impact this delay may have on applicants trying to start college and hope that our scholarship program will soon be back to almost normal.

This Is No Picnic
By Claudia (Kettles) Lovgren ’65

The QA Grizzlies will have to hibernate and picnic alone this summer.

The all class picnic at Gasworks Park, usually held on the last Sunday in August, has been cancelled in order to keep our QAHS Grizzlies grads safe.

However, you can “pretend picnic” on that date. Just don’t eat all of what we would have had from the selection of tasty eats that we usually have, or you may not get out of your winter hibernation for the picnic next year!

MWOQA Notes
By Roger Jensen ’61

We will not have a fall Houbregs Golf Tournament this year. Health concerns make it not worth the risk.

There will be a Christmas luncheon, however, assuming Washington’s progress towards returning to “normal” continues. The luncheon continues a 48 year tradition and will be at the Seattle Yacht Club on Tuesday, Dec. 29 at 11:00 a.m. Please check the website for updates, www.qagrizzlies.org.

Legendary QA Baseball Coach, Walt Milroy, Turns 100 - Has Ties to Classes of ’49 and ’69 METRO Baseball Champs
By Craig Smith ’69 and Scott Stevens ’69

On February 8th, a splendid 100th birthday party was held for Coach Walt Milroy, hosted in Bothell by Dee Hawkes ’54, noted northwest coach, and attended by over 30 former QAHS graduates and players on Walt coached teams. Each person paid their respects and told a personal story of Walt, and the cake was delicious too.

Walt arrived at Queen Anne in 1947 and two years later, in 1949, coached the QAHS team to victory over Garfield HS for the City Baseball Championship. Walt left Queen Anne in 1959, moving to the newly opened Ingraham High School.

Walt, in 1946, was the UW Baseball Coach where he coached the Frosh team. One of his players at the UW was Mel Waite, another legendary QAHS Baseball Coach, who went on to coach the QAHS Baseball team in 1969 that won the Seattle METRO Baseball Championship. Mel was the winningest baseball coach in Seattle METRO League history with 200+ wins.

The ’49 and ’69 Queen Anne baseball teams were the only QAHS baseball teams to win the Seattle METRO Baseball championship in the modern era.

The 1949 team had a very successful season with a record of 11-2 that ended in a win over Garfield High School, score 5-4, for the Seattle City Baseball Championship.

The team included Bob Houbregs ’49, the basketball legend at QAHS and University of Washington playing first base and was All City; Bob Garvin ’49 was All City and hit over .400; Wayne Parsons ’49 was All City at third

Magnolia Midcentury Memories
By Claudia (Kettles) Lovgren ‘65

The third volume of the treasured Magnolia Memories is at the printer! There was a delay of course due to the COVID 19 but the wait will be well rewarded with stories of the 50’s & 60’s by Magnolia residents.

To quote some recommendations:

First, was the award-winning volume in 2001, Magnolia: Memories & Milestones. Then, the award-nominated Magnolia: Making More Memories in 2007. This book is distinguished by the intimacy of the subjects covered and the histories well told. Other neighborhoods might follow Magnolia and let Seattle read living histories by essayist citizens. But, back to this – and, I repeat: I can highly recommend!
— Paul Dorpat, Seattle

What isn’t in prose is in wonderful black and white photographs depicting the places, faces, and spirit of Magnolia at midcentury.
— Larry Phillips, Past King County Councilmen, District 4

Magnolia: Midcentury Memories perfectly captures through delightful first person narratives, history and anecdotes the transformation of a sleepy, somewhat rural community into a post-World War II baby-boom neighborhood of Seattle…they are the stories of America.
— Kip M Roberson, Regional Manager, Magnolia Branch Library

I highly recommend this edition since I was fortunate to have contributed to this with my story of the first neighborhood my family moved to from Michigan.

My Covid Story
By Claudia (Kettles) Lovgren ‘65

Today, June 5, 2020 is the 55th anniversary of the graduation ceremony for my class at the Seattle Center. Our reunion will now be our 56th next year. This is hardly a sacrifice compared to the overwhelming losses in so many ways that have cruelly changed so many lives here and around the world. A friend lost his father to this and a cousin is recovering from the effects.

I have been one of the very fortunate and grateful ones who is still healthy and have a job (I have to pay my driver somehow and do work for an amazing company that went far beyond the safety protocol) though I was furloughed on March 23rd, since the Governor said I was over 65 (how did that happen?!!) and will gladly return on June 15th.

This afforded me the time for long delayed projects at home which kept the health department from putting up the yellow crime tape. Supporting my local bookstore, I had plenty to read to fill the bookcase to ZOOM for the QAHS Alumni Association Board meetings. And so many wonderful causes to contribute to. Since I am a capital NIGHT person (I blame Johnny Carson) I am now looking for the manual for setting my alarm. I did just fine by myself and only did what the Rice Krispies told me.

In the beginning I said that some good has to and will come out of this. We have seen so much already exemplifying the Golden Rule which is pretty easy to live by in small and big ways. Everyday. And just think of John Lennon’s words in his song IMAGINE.

Who’s News, Summer 2020
By Kim R. Turner ‘61

General News
Wow! Who would have expected nature to interfere with our Grizzly get-togethers. At this point (early June) we had to cancel the Spring Luncheon and Summer Picnic. The luncheon would have been our annual election. Fortunately we have a great board whose men and women were/are willing to continue another year, and will keep Grizzlies apprised of all upcoming Grizzly events. Covid-19 hit our shores at just the wrong time for holding our spring and summer 2020 events. Let us hope that our face masks and distancing will keep this viral disease at bay.

Kerry McMahan ’54, sends along a write-up of the life of Harold J. “Jim” Rowland ’40, who died in 2014. Jim’s father, Harold “Hap” Rowland started Rowland Motors in 1920. Jim started working there shortly after serving in the Army Air Corp during WWII. Eventually Jim became President and CEO of the firm, which lasted over 68 years on “Auto Row” on First Hill.

Growing up on Queen Anne Hill, Jim and his brother and sister all graduated from Queen Anne High School. His sister, Nancy (Rowland) LaRue ’43, died in May of 2019. His brother Jack ’42 died years ago. The family was related to the Kerrys of West Highland Drive.

Linda (Williams) Clugston ’58, sends memories of Jack Sederholm ’58, who died in late December. Linda’s recollections:

“Jack Sederholm and his family lived across the street (5th Avenue W.) from my family during the late 40s and early 50s. Jack attended Coe School and played in the Little School Orchestra (see photo). He and I are standing at the back. We shared piano responsibilities. Also in the photo is Steven Pihl (first Violin)—Steven always played well—never sounded like a beginner—and had perfect pitch. Miss Scallon (4th Grade teacher) enjoyed demonstrating Steven’s talent when we had guests in the classroom. Also shown are Steven’s brother and Marilyn Oven, Richard Sieber, Bobby Lewis, and others. We were always amazed at the fact that the lady who directed the orchestra was named Jacqueline Cedarholm and was called “Jacqui.”

(Ed. Note: Jacquey Cedarholm was QA 1941 and taught musical instruments at several Seattle grade schools, including Warren Avenue School, where I first met her (1952/53). Jacquey also taught music at Catherine Blaine Junior High. She later became involved in Welsh ancestry groups and the Queen Anne Historical Society.)

Linda goes on to note: “The Sederholms were friendly folks, welcoming to all the neighborhood kids. A favorite game was ‘Playing Store.’ We called our enterprise ‘The Little Southern Grocery’. Lots of happy memories.”

Nancy (Trout) Hilliard ’58, remembers:

Nancy (Trout) Hilliard ’58, remembers being in a stage production with Jack at QAHS.

Jack was active in his LDS church all his life, with a two plus-year mission to Germany. He earned a B.A. in Speech and Dramatic Arts from Brigham Young University, a Ph.D. from Wayne State University in 1979 and became a professor and director of Communication Arts at Elizabethtown College in Pennsylvania. From 1978-85, he directed an outdoor production for his church each summer in upstate New York. His last residence after retirement was in Ballard.

1951
Dale Taylor ’78, writes that his father, Roy D. Taylor ’51, died April 13, 2020. Roy saved KUAYs, and kept a strong interest in the alumni and its needs. Dale and his sister, Nancy (Taylor) Bartlett ’74, inquire as to any info about Roy which we would like. Roy was one of the many Grizzly Angels.

1954

Nancy (Trout) Hilliard ’58, has been pulling together a history and genealogy of the Kraabel and Brobeck families. It seems that George Brobeck ’28, and his future wife, Margaret Gow ’29, were classmates at QAHS in the twenties—and Judy (Kraabel) Brobeck ’58, and Al Brobeck ’57, were classmates some 30 years later in the 1950s. Our Alma Mater did good matchmaking for this family!

Nancy continues: “I will be sending Sandra (Stamolis) Wall ’58, and John Wall’s ’58, combined memorial info as soon as their son, John edits. What grounded leaders they were both at QAHS—and in their adult lives in Chelan, WA, as fruit growers and civic activists.

Joel Anne Jessen ’58, and Marian Hailey-Moss ’58, have teamed up after having spent years living across the country—Marian in New York City; Joel Anne in Seattle and vicinity. The result of their teamwork is a charming book “Jazzie’s Dream.” Jazzie is Joel-Anne’s Dachshund companion/friend. This book is the latest of a series of children’s (and adult children’s) books dealing with animals and animal rights. Marc Chalvin, who did the illustrations for this and others in the series, is a Parisian artist with a lot of whimsy.

For those looking for more of Marian’s series, two are available on-line for reading: “Mother Nature’s Secret” and “Lovey’s Travels.” You may access these by going to https://www.marianhaileymoss.com. Click the third label on the header “FREE READ.” They are given in these unusual times by her Kindness Books team.

John Colvin ’59, inquires about our scholarship program. He has two grandsons, both graduates of Glacier Peak HS who are now eligible for scholarships. John writes, “My wife and I managed to get two sons through SPU, but that was a few years ago. Glacier Peak High School in Snohomish’s team name is the Grizzlies ... I cannot get too far away from being a bear! He also sends appreciation to all the folks who keep the Grizzly memories alive. John and Marion Colvin live in Snohomish, WA.

Kim’s footnote: Memories remind me of a crewcut blond with grey eyes who was not far removed from Ireland—KT

Linda “Lindy” (Torpey) Davis ’63, has moved to Newman Lake, WA near Spokane. Held a nursing career for 34 years. Loved it. “Now for a new adventure.”

1965
Joe Salisbury ’65, amends our records that James (Jim) Ferguson ’65, was killed in action in Vietnam in 1968: August 26, 1968. For those not aware, the alumni website has a detailed listing of Queen Anne memorials from WWI, WWII, Korea and Vietnam.

1967
Mary “Jill” (Holbrook) Doyle ’67, writes, “Currently in Houston. A different place here!”

1970
Anthony M. Gordon ’70, writes that he and wife Beth Dimond moved to Vashon Island in 2001 and live on six acres where, he states, “I am now a happily retired bum going on lots of hikes and bike rides; working on the property.” He sends warm regards to all QA Grizzlies.

1976
Eric Berge ’76, informs us that the 12th Annual Magnolia Village Car Show, sponsored by Werners Crash Shop (on Taylor Ave.), will go on as scheduled. The car cruise is on Saturday, August 8 starting at 3:00 P.M. at the Lookout on Magnolia Blvd. The car show is on Sunday, August 9 in the Village between 8:00 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. If the city decides it must continue distancing and close the show to spectators, the team will still hold the car cruise. They will post photos on-line on August 10 at noon. T-shirts for the event are in process already, plus 100 face masks being made out of former event t-shirts. The online event will be available on Facebook.

1977
Daniel Shiels ’77, recalls that 43 years ago this May, Queen Anne became the first Seattle public high school to win the Metro League soccer title, defeating Seattle Prep 3-0 (or 3-nil for purists).

Henry Arnoux and Roger Chess, Class of 1971
By Kim R. Turner ’61

Two more members of the class of 1961 left us in May, 2020. Henry Arnoux, “Chief” and Roger Chess. I didn’t know Roger that well, as we had few classes together. He was a good student and one whose smile was always sincere. I don’t recall the last time I saw him in person, but his obit in May 24, 2020, Seattle Times, showed that he had a life dedicated to hard work.

Henry Arnoux, on the other hand, was one of my first friends. I lived in the house at the foot of the stairs on Third Ave. N., and Henry lived in an apartment complex just around the corner across from Mercer School which became the Seattle Public Schools’ Administration Building. The apartment is still there (as of Spring 2020), but my old home was torn down and replaced by two townhouses during the last decade.

Henry and I went through grade school (Warren Avenue) and Queen Anne High together—he gifted in athletics and I in drama, and we went our separate ways after Q.A.

Henry was proud of his Native American roots, gaining the nickname “Chief” all through school. In recent years, one of my co-workers kept me informed on Henry’s family life, as they lived in the same apartment complex.

I have good memories of both of the above.

Mel Waite was the 1969 QAHS Baseball Coach, Carl Fulkerson was the assistant coach. The 1969 QAHS Baseball team was a veteran group, 6 of the 9 starters were Seniors (John Varga, SS; Craig Smith, RF; Scott Stevens, 2B; Greg Pease, LF; Marc Pease, 1B; and Mike Arch, C), with the “Super Soph” pitcher, Rick Schafer; and two Juniors, Mark Backman, 3B and Larry Ringstad, CF.

The Seniors, a QA band of brothers, played baseball together since they were 7 years old, including many youth league Championships leading up to the METRO Championship game in 1969 at Sicks Seattle Stadium vs. Ingraham High School (which included Steve Waite, son of QA Baseball Coach Mel Waite).

The season started with a hard fought loss to West Seattle 4-3, then the Grizzlies went on to finish the season with a 12-4 record. John Varga was the MVP, batting over 500, tops in the league. Rick Schafer, the “Super Soph” pitcher, won all the games he pitched during the season.

At the METRO championship game Queen Anne won 2-0. Rick Schafer pitched a 1-hitter, QA had five hits, two by Craig Smith, a single and triple, Scott Stevens, Marc Pease and John Varga had the other singles.

In a historical coincidence, while Queen Anne was winning the Baseball Title in 1969, Ingraham High School was winning the 1969 State Basketball Title. Ingraham was coached by Walt Milroy and the team included our Governor, Jay Inslee.

Searching for Wayne Clark - the late 50s era Grizzly who saved my life!

By Manny Rouvelas ’62

In the late 1950’s, Wayne Clark was a QAHS student and Boy Scout Explorer in BPOE Boy Scout Troop 92 that met at Warren Avenue Elementary School. Wayne was a quiet, strong and sensible guy a few years older than me and a leader by example.

One weekend our troop went on a camping trip to Denny Creek on the South fork of the Snoqualmie River.

Unexpectedly, a light snow fell overnight while we were sleeping. The hike back along the trail ridge about 300 feet above the river was slippery. I tried to crawl over a snow covered tree trunk that had fallen across the trail and jutted out high over the river. I slipped, lost my balance and slid down the trunk uncontrollably to what would have been a fatal fall to the boulder-covered river bed. Miraculously, Wayne Clark, the only one in the troop strong enough to grab and hold me, was right behind me on the trail. He grabbed me, held on and instead of dying that day, I have had a long, full and joyous life.

I would like to thank him, but have not been able to locate him. If you know Wayne and his contact information, please email me at manny.rouvelas@klgates.com.

Ed. Note: Wayne Clark was in the class of 1960, but is not shown in the 1960 annual or commencement, perhaps he moved away. Let us know also if you have information about him, info@qagrizzlies.org.
GRIZZLY ANGELS

Our Association is funded primarily by donations, plus sales of merchandise and raffles. We are unique among alumni groups in not having paid memberships. Your tax deductible gifts are greatly appreciated and needed not just to provide scholarships, but also to cover the KUAY, logo merchandise purchases and miscellaneous expenses. All our efforts are by unpaid volunteers. In these difficult times we hope you can find a way to help the QAHSAA continue its mission.

2020 Covid-19: Corona Virus

My attempts to move across the Sound to my late sister’s home in Gorst (West Port Orchard) before mid-2020 were stymied, although I have spent the majority of my time there, in splendid isolation.

I continue to take a cartload of treasures over there, although it is maybe one trip every ten days instead of once or twice a week.

I hope that all our readers are keeping safe. As I write this, some of the social distancing is being changed, so that small gatherings, meetings, etc., can take place. This would be nice, as June 7, I will turn 77.
